

The Wall starts 1980 with 84-51 win

BY RITCHIE PRIDDY
Battalion Staff

Led by junior Rudy Woods and senior Rynn Wright, the new, improved 1980 Wall got off to a slow start Saturday before kicking into overdrive to lead Texas A&M University to an easy 84-51 win over the Windsor Basketball Club Saturday.

It was the first game of the season for the Wall, consisting of Vernon Smith, Rynn Wright, Rudy Woods and Claude Riley, as they held the Canadians to a miserable 38 percent shooting effort for the night in front of 5,646 G. Rollie White fans. Meanwhile the Aggies shot 56.2 percent on the floor, including a sizzling 70 percent during the second half.

Stymied by the Ag's 3-2 zone defense, the Canadians managed to hit only 23 of 60 field goal attempts. Texas A&M Head Coach Shelby Metcalf was obviously pleased with his team's performance.

"I think their skill has improved," said Metcalf. "Our defense is further along than our offense. It's what carried us last year. We take pride in our defense."

After allowing Windsor to jump to a 4-1 lead in the game's first three minutes, the Aggies erupted for eight unanswered points following a Rudy Woods stuff shot and never trailed again. Woods finished the night with a team-high 21 points and 11 rebounds, while Wright chipped in 18 points.

Windsor fought back to tie the game at 11 apiece with 12:40 left in the first half on a 20-foot jump shot by Bill Day but Texas A&M quickly built a 10-point lead and it was clear sailing from there on.

Going into the locker room at half-time, the Aggies enjoyed a comfortable 32-21 advantage.

In the second half, they picked up where they left off and jumped out to a 17-point lead on a Woods lay-in with 17:36 left to play.

Metcalf substituted freely throughout most of the rout, and gave everybody on his squad a chance to pick up some needed playing time. Metcalf said he was pleased with the play of his guards, a position that many thought was questionable.

"I thought it was good," analyzed Metcalf. "I thought Tyrone (Ladson) did well. He just got in foul trouble, but they were hustling fouls. Reggie (Roberts) played well, really well for a freshman. Jay McHugh played well at the end of the game. He did Roy Jones.

"Overall, I thought our game was just about as good as we could play. But we've got a lot more to do. I don't know whether we're ready in time to play in the state tournament. The Aggies travel to the University of Maine.

Privates win first in 17 years

United Press International
DALLAS — The four private schools in the Southwest Conference Saturday wrapped up their first winning season over the league's state-supported universities in 17 years.

Wins by Baylor over Texas and SMU over Arkansas gave the private institutions an 11-8 record against the state schools with only one game remaining — Rice's meeting with Houston next weekend.

Baylor did the most damage, winning all five of its games against the state colleges this season.

The last such winning season was in 1963 when Baylor, Rice, TCU and SMU combined for a 14-13-1 record against Texas, Texas A&M, Texas and Texas Tech.

Jets defeat Oilers

United Press International
NEW YORK — Pat Leahy, who missed a chance to win the game late in regulation, kicked a 38-yard field goal 3:58 into overtime Sunday to lift the New York Jets to a wild 31-28 upset victory over the Houston Oilers.

The Jets took the kickoff at the start of overtime and were aided by a 15-yard facemask penalty which brought the ball to New York's 40. The Jets then moved to the Houston 25 to set up Leahy's winning kick. The key plays in the winning march were receptions of 9 and 17 yards by running back Bruce Harper.

The bitter loss snapped a five-game Houston winning streak and dropped the Oilers, 8-4, into a first-place tie with Cleveland in the AFC Central, one game ahead of Pittsburgh.

A 5-yard touchdown pass from Ken Stabler to Rich Caster with 1:31 remaining in regulation capped a 28-point fourth quarter for the Oilers and tied the score 28-28. The Jets, 3-9, moved to Houston's 19 with six seconds left in regulation but Leahy missed a 36-yard field goal attempt to force the overtime.

Harper took a swing pass from Richard Todd, who completed 13-of-26 passes for 236 yards and two interceptions, and raced 45 yards for a touchdown with 4:17 remaining to give the Jets a 28-21 lead.

Houston had rallied from a 21-0 fourth-quarter deficit on three TD passes by Stabler.

After the Oilers had tied the score 21-21 on a 68-yard TD pass from Stabler to Caster with 5:30 left, the Jets struck quickly after the ensuing kickoff. Following an incomplete and a 21-yard pass to Lam Jones, Todd hit Harper in the right flat and the speedy running back cut across the field to score the go-ahead touchdown and give the Jets a 28-21 lead.

Lacrosse team wins again

The Texas A&M University lacrosse team raised its scrimmage record to 5-0 Sunday with a 16-4 win over the Lone Star Lacrosse Club of Austin.

The game was played at Southwest Texas State University campus in San Marcos. SWTSU invited the two teams because it is planning to form its own lacrosse team.

The Aggies may venture to Austin to take on the Texas Longhorns lacrosse team Saturday before the A&M-Longhorn football game, but details haven't been worked out thus far.

All-University Volleyball Finals

The third floor of G. Rollie White was alive with Intramural Volleyball action last Wednesday night as the All-University playoffs decided ultimate champions.

Men's Class A play saw Brand X prove that they were definitely a name-brand commodity as they swept through the semi-finals and finals without a loss to clinch the title.

Women's A action resulted in a mild upset as Mosher I A wrenched the title from Rothers, 2-1.

Co-Rec A competition resulted in Pegas topping Rousterson crown.

Class B competition was completed when Awesome Roots, Dongs, and Mixed Roots won Mens, Women's and Co-Rec championships, respectively.

The Transplants captured the Men's Class C title, while Wizards took home the Co-Rec crown. The Women's C title has been won earlier by Wesleyan.

Rebecca Green of Rother's Bookstore is our McDonald's Be-Our guest winner this week. Rebecca can pick up her Be-Our-Guest card in the IM office.

Bowling Action

The Intramural Bowling Singles Tournament rolled to a halt last Thursday evening as the final Bowling championship was decided.

The Women's competition saw Teri Gayle Hull and Sandie Patterson win the Class A & B titles, respectively. Hull defeated Norma Gonzalez while Patterson topped Cheryl Turner.

Jerry Hawkins emerged from the pack as the Men's A champion by defeating Rick Smalley. Men's B action was concluded as Kevan Friesenhahn defeated Jim Brozovic for the title.

Gurry, Adalpe Capture Tennis Crowns

Kendall Gurry and Joe Adalpe captured the Intramural Tennis Singles Championships in the Class A Women's and Men's Divisions, respectively. Dorm champion Gurry defeated the Women's Independent champ, Julie Drewry, 7-5 and 6-1. Adalpe topped Mark Smith who was representing Davis-Gary.

Smith saw the All-U title elude him once again as he emerged as the runner-up for the second consecutive year.

Gurry, competing for Hoby-Neely during the competition, stormed through the entire tournament without losing a single set. The blonde-haired freshman Mechanical Engineering major from Webster stopped Melissa Kolour, Janet Freund, and Tami Buffington in route to her final showdown with Drewry.

Adalpe's road to the finals led him through matches with Frankie Krenke, Cade Adams, Brad Blume, Bruce Cochran, Simon Ruijsenaars, John Nesbit, and finally, Mark Smith. In addition to Adalpe and Smith, the Class A All-University field included Fish champion, Blaine Porter (F-1) and Corps champion John Nesbit (F-2).

All-University Class B action in the Men's competition saw Scott Marble, the Independent representative, emerge as the

All-U champ. Class B division winners included Marble as well as Jay Fuller (Dorm Hotard), Bobby Ogden (Fish Sq. 12), and Greg Netzer (Corps - Sq. 11).

The Women's Class B Championship, yet to be decided, will pit Dorm champ Charlotte Hopcus of Fowler against Independent champ Sherie Webster.

And for those of us who enjoy the pure recreational aspects of the game, the Class C winners were Jerry Fabian and Sue Bierman. Fabian outlasted Steve Hensel to earn the Merit C crown while Bierman topped Marina Kanadjian to win the Women's C title.
