Defense carries struggling Pokes

IRVING—A game-breaking defensive play featuring tackles Randy White and Larry Cole helped bail out the struggling Dallas offense Sunday, bringing the Cowboys a 14-10 win over Washington and moving them a step closer to the NFL playoffs. Dallas built its record to 9-3, still two games back of the NFC East leading Philadelphia Eagles, while the Redskins slumped to 3-9. The Cowboys turned the ball over on six occasions and failed time after time to expand on an early 7-3 lead. But in the space of a few seconds the Cowboys' defense struck despite a freakish turn in the final 90 seconds that allowed the Redskins a last chance for victory and brought Dallas its third straight win over its traditional rival. Facing a third and 11 from his own 48 on the opening play of the fourth quarter, Washington quarterback Mike Kruzcek started back to throw. But Kruzcek, filling in for the injured Joe Theismann, was almost immediately hit by White. White, who had easily beaten offensive guard Ron Saul, caused the ball to pop out of Kruzcek's hands and directly into the arms of Cole. The ball ricocheted off Cole's hands, bounced off his face mask and then back into his hands, enabling him to ramble 43 yards for what was officially recorded as an interception return. It was the fourth touchdown of Cole's 13-year career, all of them coming against the Redskins. Dallas' only other touchdown came on a 3-yard run by Tony Dorsett on Dallas' second possession, that score being set up by a 52-yard punt return from James Jones. Washington, choosing to use a conservative offense, managed a 34-yard field goal by Mark Moseley in the second quarter and an 8-yard run by Wilbur Jackson with 68 seconds to play.

Aggie women come in 4 at Conference Fall Me

By RICK STOLLE
Battalion Staff
The fourth-seeded Texas A&M women's tennis team came in fourth in the Southwest Conference Fall meet at the Lakeway Tennis Center in Austin Sunday. The University of Texas defeated Southern Methodist 6-3 to take the title. The rest of the teams in the tournament came in as follows: Texas Christian University, A&M, Rice and Arkansas in a tie for fifth and Texas Tech and the University of Houston in a tie for seventh. In the first round, the Aggie women defeated Tech 5-4 despite the loss of top player Liliانا Fernandez to a torn shoulder muscle. The two teams split the singles matches but A&M won the two doubles matches they had to win. They were forced to play with one new doubles team due to the loss of Fernandez. For the remainder of the tournament, the number two doubles was the top team. The third team was number two and coach Jan Cannon had to make up a third doubles team from the other players she took to the tournament. "For what we had to do and who we had to go with, I am happy with our performance," she said. Cannon went on to say she did not know how long Fernandez would be out of her injury. "At least we have a ball coming up and we can replace her," Cannon said. Fernandez competed in the next tournament only 91 yards on Dec. 5-6. In the next round, the Aggies defeated A&M 5-3 in a delayed indoor match. The singles but lost all the matches to the Longhorns. The match was delayed by a rainstorm before it was forced indoors. Saturday's matches were outdoors. The Ags lost the third close contest against TCU. We are now in a split team wins to win the match. The one doubles team was enough. "We lost our number two in every match," Cannon said. Girls Ferol Hinkle-Judy would have done well as a three team but we had to them.
