

McDONALD'S INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

At University Drive

Now at Manor East Mall

Im Game Plan

BASKETBALL ENTRIES OPEN: Today (Monday, December 1) marks the opening day that entries for Intramural Basketball are being accepted. Entries will be accepted through next Tuesday (December 9), however entries will be limited so sign up early. Entry fees will be $5.00 per team with the exception of the Super League which will be $15.00. Information regarding all leagues can be obtained at the IM Office (159 East Kyle).

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL OFFICIALS: Anyone interested in becoming an Intramural Basketball Official should attend the first training clinic at 7 p.m. tonight in Room 262 of G. Rollie White.

SPORTS OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION: Persons interested in joining The Texas A&M Sports Officials Association should attend their meeting on Thursday, December 4, 1980. The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in Room 267 of G. Rollie White.

INTRAMURAL LOGO CONTEST: Information is available today concerning the IM LOGO CONTEST to be held second semester. The contest will determine the new IM logo to be used by the IM-REC SPORTS DEPT. in the years to come. Pick up your rules in the IM Office (159 East Kyle).

Top Archers

Near record numbers of archers turned out for the Intramural Archery Singles and Doubles tournament held recently in DeWare Fieldhouse. The 142 individuals entered in this year's tourney were the most contestants in the past three years.

Men's Class A honors went to Forrest Parker with a 284 total while Tricia Green recorded a 279 to capture Women's A competition. A complete listing of class winners follows:

Singles
Mens	A	Forrest Parker	284
	B	Curtis Boos	257
	C	Sheldon Wulstein	267*
Womens	A	Tricia Green	279
	B	Elaine Christensen	220
	C	Claire M. Hodgins	255*
Doubles
Mens	A	Phil Thomas Pat Dzjuik	532
	B	Greg Frazier Matt Reed	453
	C	John Gorena Scott Fahliquist	510*
Womens	A	Tricia Green Janet Wilkerson	539
	B	Lisa Stone Elaine Christensen	436
	C	Gayle Rathmah Melinda Feobrich	436*
Co-Rec
A	A	Janet Wilkerson Forrest Parker	544
	B	Chris Hall Hope Paasch	403
	C	Randy Mitchell Carol Price	449*

*Class C shot at 10 yards as compared to 15 yards for A & B

U.T. Clinches Class A Football Title

1980 Men's Class A All-University Flag Football Champions: Kneeling (L-R) Time Feickert, Walt Beasley, Mike Beasley, Shelton McMath, Mike Hurdle; Standing (L-R)

Kurt Elmendorf, Randy Woodruff, Steve Thelen, Kyle Hawthorne, Moure Ashley, Terry Klein, Steve Moore; In Front, Mascot Ely.

Before a chilly crowd of approximately 50 people and 5 dogs, U.T. won the Men's Class A All-University Flag Football championship with a 14-0 shut-out of Quicksilver.

U.T., clad in their burnt orange and white T-shirts with the University of Texas emblem, broke open a scoreless game with touchdowns on their second and third possessions of the second half.

The first half was close as neither team was able to generate much offense. Quicksilver's defense, led by the line play of Keith Paris and Lindsey Eubanks, was particularly effective.

Quicksilver's offense reached the 5-yard line in the closing minutes of the first half only to have the drive stalled by a fourth down incompletion.

After the initial drives by both teams in the second half were halted by interceptions, U.T. went to work. Quarterback Mike Beasley hit his brother Walt for a long gain. Beasley then connected with Shelton McMath as McMath was falling to the ground at the goal line for the score. The PAT attempt was unsuccessful.

U.T. then held Quicksilver on four downs and regained the pigskin. During this series, the key play was Beasley's scramble from his side of midfield to inside his opponent's 10-yard line. On the very next play, Beasley again connected with McMath, running a flag pattern to the right corner of the endzone, for 6 points. They ran the identical play which was also successful for the 2-point conversion.

U.T. chose their name to draw a little attention to themselves and possibly aggravate a team to the point where they could not play, according to team member Kyle Hawthorne. However, the champions did show a little of the 12th man spirit by having number 0, Ely, suited up and ready on the sidelines — Ely is a dog.

In Women's Class A competition, the Jokers squeaked out a 7-6 decision over Sudden Death. Sudden Death tied the game with 25 seconds remaining on a fourth down 5-yard pass from QB Belinda Miksch to Melinda Dornak. However, the two point conversion attempt fell incomplete in the end zone, preserving the victory for the Jokers.

The victors were undefeated going into the game having already defeated Sudden Death twice. The Jokers' only score, set up by a Cindy Gough interception, came on a Vicki Markowsky to Becky Darce touchdown pass. Markowsky then connected with Mary Beth Czajowsky for the 1-point conversion.

In the Men's B competition, the Bosque Brewers removed Spot, 32-6. Spot tallied their only score of the game on their first possession when Steve Chappell connected with Glenn Kimmel in the middle of the end zone. The point after attempt failed. The long bomb was instrumental in the Bosque Brewer's initial score as QB Bill Hannes hit David Burden. He then completed a touchdown pass to Ted Jones, but the point after failed.

Hannes combined with Jones again for their second score, but the point after was again unsuccessful.

Hannes threw to Don Burden for their 18th point and then tip-toed into the endzone for the extra point. The Brewers went on to tally two more scores for the 32-6 win.

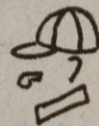

In Co-Rec A finals, Pike's Marbles defeated Harris Mixed Co., 18-12. Pike's Marbles scored first when Bubba Oliver caught a touchdown bomb from Mark Humphrey for the 6-0 lead. They also tallied the second points of the game on a bit of razzle dazzle. Humphrey took the snap, rolled left and pitched back to Lauren Marble who tossed a 10-yard scoring strike to Oliver and the half ended 12-0.

Harris Mixed Co. rebounded in the second half on their first possession. Quarterback Douglas Harris dropped back to pass from his 20 and hit Rodney Paris at the Marbles' 10-yard line. Harris then threw to Johnita Davis for the touchdown. Their point after attempt failed.

Pike's Marbles retaliated with a 5-yard scoring pass from Humphrey to Mike Thomas to make the score 18-6. The final tally of the contest came as a result of Davis' arm and Harris' legs. Starting on their own 20, Davis connected on a short pass to Harris who scampered down the left sideline untouched for the score.

In other All-U final action, Mosher #1 defeated the Keathley Kommetts to take the Women's B title while the Natives defeated Boborigma in Men's C. In Co-Rec Class B, Who Cares nipped T&A, 15-14, while in C competition U.T. (again) devoured CoRist, 28-14. OCA III captured the Women's C title at an earlier date.

Wanted!

IM BASKETBALL OFFICIALS
FLEXIBLE HOURS, GOOD TRAINING PROVIDED. CALLED EVENINGS AND WEEKENDS. ATTEND TONIGHT TRAINING CLINIC, 7 P.M., 262 G. ROLLIE WHITE.

Pickleball Finals, Finally

The IM-REC SPORTS OFFICE received a collect call last week from the far reaches of Oregon. The caller was the one and only Peter Pickleball and the subject was the results of the TAMU Pickle-Ball Doubles competition held this fall. The IM Dept. apologizes to Peter and the IM Pickle-Ball winners for the delay in reporting the results.

Being a first year event, it was only fitting that the Class A Men's Doubles winners were Jeff Aggies. Two freshmen — Spalding and L. N. Rouben captured the Class A title.

In the Men's B action Kingsberry and Shaw emerged as the ultimate winners while Jan Baldwin and Vicki Markowsky captured the top spot in the only Women's class. Co-Rec champs were Beate Miksch and Rick Hall.

TAMU Badminton Club Hosts Tour

The Texas A&M Badminton Club hosted their fall tournament the weekend of November 14-15. The tourney was one of tournament competitions that the club will conduct during academic year, the second to be held during the spring semester.

The tournament was held to provide top-notch competition for high level badminton players as well as beginner's competition novices.

Complete results follow:

Men's Singles	A	Louis Tijerina
	B	Danny Valenta
	C	Pete Petroski
Women's Singles	A	Sandy Jobs
	B	Rahela Rashied
	C	Patsy Spinelli
Men's Doubles	A	Louis Tijerina/Mark Morford
	B	Danny Valenta/Alan Johnson
	C	Eric Sandy/N. Fox
Women's Doubles	A	Cheryl Northam/Sandy Jobs
	B	Ruth Alessandro/M. Burnett
	C	Sandy Jobs/Clay Jobs
Mixed Doubles	B	Tracy May/Danny Valenta
	C	Teri Andrews/Phil DuFree

Putt Putt Champs

Tom Phillips carded a 71 to top the Men's Singles field in the IM Putt Putt Golf classic. Phillips' female counterpart was Susan Schillings who toured the course, also with a 174 total.

The doubles action saw Jeff Beckman and David Barnett combine for a 159 total to win the Men's Doubles title while Susan Kuhn and Marianne Ruppe carded a 174 total to take top honors in the Women's Doubles action. Co-Rec honors went to Jeff Cunningham and Dennis Schillings who toured the course, also with a 174 total. Hole-in-Ones were recorded during the day. Greg Noonan led the pack with three hole-in-ones. Marianne Ruppe recorded a female single.

Brownson, Oakleaf Defend Crowns

Last year's All-University Class A Handball Champions, Jeff Brownson and Susan Oakleaf, were victorious once again in this year's edition of the IM Handball Singles tournament.

Tim Feickert captured the Men's Class B title while Holly Holtz of Squadron 14 captured honors in the Women's C competition. The Men's C crown was won by Mike Seawright. No women's title was held in Women's C.

Long Driving Results

Thirty four persons competed in the annual IM Long Driving Contest held on the East Campus Polo Fields. The winning drive of 293 yards was by Andy Totah. Totah's effort outdistanced runner-up

David Gourley by 8 yards.

In the ladies segment of the contest, Jane Loeber clubbed 148 yards while defeating 2nd place finisher, Debra Waller.

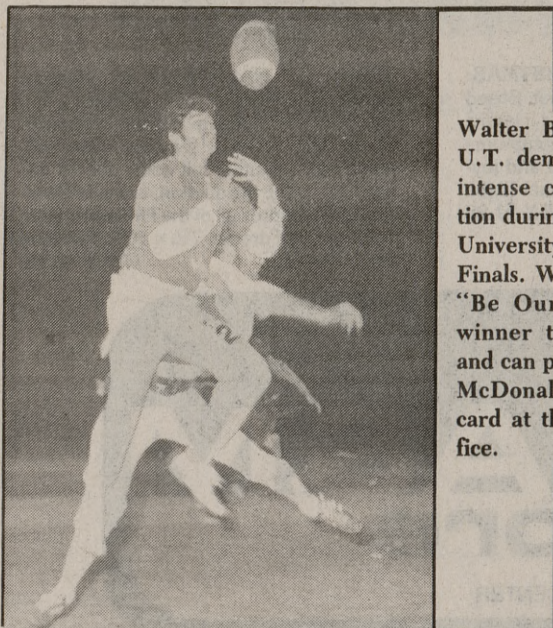

Bill Bryant prepares to serve during his recent racquetball doubles match as his partner, Rick Ostrander, looks on.

Racquetball Continues

Now that the Thanksgiving Holiday is over and finals are soon upon us, don't forget that Intramural Racquetball action is still in full swing.

Competition will take place right up until the end of the semester. Individuals who have progressed this far should realize that now is not the time to miss a match. Check (and recheck) your schedule and be sure to make room in your busy day for your IM Racquetball date.

Walter Beasley of U.T. demonstrates intense concentration during the All-University Football Finals. Walt is our "Be Our Guest" winner this week and can pick up his McDonald's guest card at the IM office.

Punters, Passers And Kickers

Mary Castor established a new Intramural record in winning the Women's division of the Punt, Pass & Kick Contest this fall. Castor's total of 250 feet 6 inches eclipsed Cindy Rogers' old mark of 238 feet 2 1/2 inches.

Jon Moore topped the Men's field with a total of 474 yards. Forty-two individuals competed in the competition.

Acknowledgments

This ad is sponsored by your local McDonald Restaurants at University Drive and Manor East Mall. Photos by David Hurst. Stories by John Bramblett.

Awesome Roots successfully defended their Men's Class B All-University volleyball title again this year. Kneeling (L-R) Vance Schultz, Billy Ellerbrock, Jim Sanders; Standing (L-R) Richard Michalka, David Bocckhorn, Ricky Rice, Chris Thomas.

