Channel 15 Highlights

BROADCAST DAY: Thursday at 1. A series of 14-minute live productions from Studio B done entirely by beginning broadcast students at Texas A&M University. There will be magic, music, sports and other offerings.

SOUNDSTAGE: Thursday at 7. An Evening With Victor Borge features musician-comedian Borge in a live performance from Chicago's Drury Lane Water Tower Theater.

A CHRISTMAS SPECIAL WITH PAVAROTTI: Thursday at 9. Metropolitan Opera star Luciano Pavarotti sings "Ave Maria," "O Holy Night," and other Christmas classics in the majestic Notre Dame Cathedral.

THE GOSSAMER ALBATROSS: Friday at 8. A team of American aviation enthusiasts challenge the English Channel in a 70-pound engineless aircraft — achieving the first human-powered long distance flight in history.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION HOLIDAY PARADE: Saturday at 8.

A delayed telecast of the Chamber of Commerce Christmas parade which takes place Saturday at 2. The theme of the parade is "It's a Small, Small World," and it features floats and bands sponsored by local organizations.

GREAT PERFORMANCES: Sunday at 1. Big Blonde stars Sally Kellerman as the big blonde, hopeless Hazel, who gives up her party life for a married man and fails. Her marriage is doomed and she returns unhappily to her former life.

AS WE SEE IT: Monday at 2. Brooklyn Technical High School, Brooklyn, New York. The story of five different students who have passed up neighborhood high schools to attend this elite but desegregated school.

THE BEST OF SOUNDSTAGE: Tuesday at 9. Joan Armatrading. Joan Armatrading spins a musical web with songs filled with low throat notes and delicate wind-echoing tones that have become her trademark.
