Ex-Vegas singer to perform tonight

By JANE C. BRUST
Battalion Staff

A taste of Las Vegas will come to Rudder Auditorium tonight when Mary K. Miller performs in concert at 8.

The MSC Town Hall and the Opera and Performing Arts Society committees are presenting the former Las Vegas entertainer as a special treat during Dead Week. Admission is free but tickets must be picked up in advance at the Rudder Box Office.

Miller will present a variety show with the accompanying piece band. The show opens her act and finale.

In a campus press conference, Miller said that her renditions of "Help Me Make It In The Night," "Driving My Car," and "You Needed Me."

Miller, who lives in Las Vegas, she has never before performed in an Aggie audience. "I've heard that the piece band, the show opens her act and finale. The concert, paid for by Station Bank, is the final of that bank's grand opening. College Station Bank is building on Texas Avenue.

A drawing will be held to give away a trip to Las Vegas, paid for by the person with the most tickets. The bank's majority stockholder, Vincent Kickerling, presented the idea to two members of the Town and Country Society.

Miller has performed Grand Ol' Opry and appeared on the Tonight Show. Her records for Inera Records are on RCA.
