Aggie volleyball team takes 2nd in SWC

The Texas A&M University women's volleyball team lost a five-set battle to Texas in the finals of the SWC Tournament at Lubbock last Saturday, thus closing out their season play with a 24-37 record.

In preliminary play, the Aggies lost to Texas, 3-15, 15-17. Then they beat Texas Tech, 16-14, 15-13, and defeated Baylor, 16-14, 15-4. In the hotly contested finals, Texas won the first set, 17-15. The Aggies came back to win the next two, 15-4 and 15-9, but Texas evened the match with a 15-5 win and then took the title with a 15-4 victory.

Texas Tech finished third and Baylor was fourth.

Golfers 7th, 8th in event

The Texas A&M teams of Bart Cobb-Richard Cromwell and Kim Bauer-Monica Welsh finished eighth and seventh respectively in their divisions of the Bluebonnet golf meet at Columbia Lakes this past weekend.

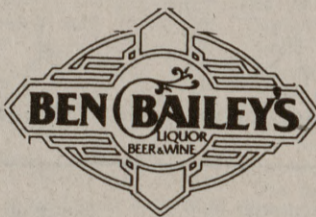

Cobb and Cromwell shot a 210, five strokes behind champion Colorado in the men's division. They had the best low-ball round of the second day Saturday, a 66, that put them in third place prior to Sunday's final round, but they closed with a 73. Cobb, with a 226, finished sixth among the individual play that was won by Houston's Ray Barr with a 214.

Bauer and Welsh finished with a team score of 251 for their seventh place. SMU won with 214. Welsh had a 237 and Bauer shot 252.
