Cougars roll over Navy in Garden State Bowl

United Press International
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Terald Clark ran for 163 yards and three touchdowns Sunday to power Houston to a 35-0 rout of error-prone

Navy in the third annual Garden State Bowl at Giants Stadium. In the first-ever meeting between the two teams, Houston had no trouble running through the Navy defense — which was ranked sixth in the nation. The Cougars, who suffered through a disappointing regular season, finished at 7-5 while Navy fell to 8-4.

Clark's TD runs came from one, 26 and two yards out, quarterback Terry Elston added a one-yard score and David Barrett dashed 14 yards for another Houston touchdown.

The game, played in temperatures in the mid-30's, drew a crowd of 41,417 for the East's only bowl game. It also marked Houston's first appearance in a bowl game outside of Texas in 18 years.

Clark, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, amassed 112 yards on 18 carries and ran for two TDs in the opening half as the Cougars built a 28-0 lead. The 5-7 senior back, who ran for 859 yards during the regular season, carried just seven times in the third period before being replaced. He sat out the remainder of the game.

Houston, which forced Navy into two fumbles and one interception, took control at the outset and were never threatened.
