Campbell sets new mark in Oilers' win over Pack

United Press International — EARL CAMPBELL, inspired by the late Vince Lombardi's motto of hard work, has surpassed his single season rushing mark and kept Houston bound for the playoffs.

The Oilers' bruising running back rushed for 151 yards — hitting 1,731 yards for the season — and two touchdowns in a 22-3 win over Green Bay Sunday in Lambeau Field, where Lombardi was a legend.

The victory gave Houston a 10-5 record and a share in the AFC Central Division lead with the Cleveland Browns, who lost 28-23 Sunday at Minnesota.

Campbell, scoring on runs of one and 24 yards, surpassed his 1,697 yards rushing last season. He said his rushing feat was fine but his goal was becoming a Super Bowl champion.

"All that's fine," Campbell said. "When I get out of football, I'm going to have a chance to look back over my years and really appreciate it."

"But as far as it stands now, while I'm still playing, I don't think it's no fun until you can do that and make it the big game, which is the Super Bowl, and then win that one."

Campbell recalled the first NFL game he attended — Green Bay at Dallas — at age 13. Lombardi was the Packers' coach and Bart Starr their quarterback.

"I guess Vince Lombardi was kind of a guy like myself, always liked to work, work, work," Campbell said. "I heard a couple times that this was one of his basic things, working the guys and that a guy is only tired if he thinks he is."

"I shook Bart Starr's hand and told him that it was a pleasure to meet him, that he was the first quarterback I saw play pro football in person, that it was kind of a pleasure to play where so many legends have played."

He scored from the one-yard line on Houston's game-opening series. Houston also scored on a 27-yard field goal by former Packer Chester Marcol and a 43-yard run by line-backer John Corker, who returned a Lynn Dickey fumble with four seconds left.

Campbell's 24-yard run in the fourth quarter gave Houston a 16-3 lead.

Marcol, signed Saturday to replace the injured Toni Fritsch, missed both extra points, but Oilers coach Bum Phillips was not concerned. He said Marcol practiced only briefly with the Oilers Saturday.

"Under the circumstances, I'm really proud of him," Phillips said. "There's a lot of work to be done on timing. Next week he'll be all right. He's got a good leg."

Dickey's fumble was one of five Packer turnovers. He threw three interceptions, two deep in Oilers territory. Gerry Ellis also fumbled deep in Oilers territory. Jan Stenerud kicked a 27-yard field goal for Green Bay.

Houston's defense has not allowed a touchdown in 10 quarters. Stenerud's field goal snapped the unit's streak of seven scoreless quarters.

3 Aggies qualify for Jr. Olympics

Each semester, the Texas A&M University fencing club grows a little more. And each semester, the result of that growth becomes a little more obvious.

Last week, the Aggies highlighted their semester by qualifying five fencers for the Junior Olympics in Cleveland, Ohio in Feb. 20-22.

August Skopik, Andy Dunks and Denise Ehrlich all took firsts at the meet, and Larry Thorpe and Pauletta Wrentz also qualified.

Ehrlich won the women's foil category, and Wrentz was second alternate.

Skopik was first in men's foil, and Thorpe finished in third place.

Dunks claimed the men's saber title, with Jerry Chevalier finishing third but not qualifying. Only students under 20-years-old may qualify for nationals.
