Woman stabbed with gun

DALLAS — Police are searching for an ex-Marine who shot and killed a woman who allowed him and his live-in partner to move into her home rent-free in one of her apartments. Sadie Phillips, 63, was bed to death, apparently with a knife she recently gave as a gift, police said. George A. Ruch Jr., 27, recently fled in Phillips' car and was believed armed with a .357-magnum pistol and a shotgun.

Phillips' body was found morning on the floor of her room. She had been slashed eight times. Phillips had taken two children under her care to a nearby supermarket for a job at a nearby supermarket. Neighbors also said Phillips purchased Christmas gifts for her children.

Ruch's children discovered woman's body after school father was gone as they prepared school Monday morning. Children were placed in the custody of the Dallas County District Attorney. Family friend David Phillips told him Ruch was man but that he had some apparent he had more than she knew.

Police said papers found home indicated Ruch was the Philadelphia area and had a security guard. "She was the kind of person gives hope to the rest of the said Cheri Hadley, who led door to Phillips for about. "She'd do anything to help just happened to run into the stray."

Phillips met Ruch about months ago when they were area and allowed Ruch and children to remain rent-free. Phillips widely known for offering aid and material help to the trodden.
