

xas A&M guard Mike Brown, along with the crowd and the ge bench, stares at an official after he dives for a loose ball ainst SMU Saturday night at G. Rollie White Coliseum. The Ags won the ballgame, 71-51, as Claude Riley scored 21 points. A&M plays Rice Tuesday at home at 7:30 p.m.

"It helps a lot," he said. "Anytime a coach puts you into a ball game, the coaches have confidence in you.

loncrief is Bucks' 'reliable sub'

WAUKEE — When Sidney ef was a college player he ted the Southwest Confernd was nearly idolized by the nedia, which bestowed on him mes like "Sid the Whiz Kid" lney the Incredible.

st season, after having been in the first round by the Mil-Bucks, it was a little hard at become accustomed to sithe bench and being a part-user.

you lose a lot of ball games, it is sing (sitting on the bench)," in an interview. "But in my chad a winning ballclub and I pretty much.

times I did feel depressed. But dsay 95 percent of the time I ad about the ballclub."

veraged more than 20 mine with 8.5 points an out-Bucks, who went to the It was considerably less time than he had been used was his output.

oncrief, a slim 6-4 guard s like a forward, showed f his old brilliance while ithin the context of his role am as a reliable sub.

ason, because of an injury g guard Brian Winters, he tarting and has responded ne fine play. In the first 44 ing 12.2 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.3 assists with 48 steals.

His numbers have gone up since he became a starter and he is growing more comfortable on the pro

"I feel very confident about starting," he said. "I can go into the ball game from the opening tipoff and I can get into the flow of the ball game. We've been winning and it's been a good experience for me to start."

The Bucks are leading the NBA Central Division and appear to be headed for the playoffs once again.

But even on a team laden with talented players like forward Mar-ques Johnson and center Bob Lanier, Moncrief still shines brightly when he is able to do what he can. That is to get open on the fast pass and make an assist or even to rebound with the big men under the boards because of his fine leaping

The only part that was hard to adjust to was not starting, not being in the ball game at the start," he said. "As far as publicity, I had all the publicity I had wanted.

"It was time for some other peo-ple, I guess. It didn't bother me."

At Arkansas he became the leading rebounder and scorer in the school's history, averaging 22 points a game his senior year with 9.6 re-

He played all seven games in the NBA playoffs as a rookie, upping his scoring average to 12.4 points and rebounds to 4.4 a game.

Moncrief feels he is starting to PROBLEM PREGNANCY? Are you considering abortion?

Free counseling and referrals

Call

(713) 779-2258

Texas Problem Pregnancy, Bryan, Tx.

Longhorn swimmers swamp Aggie men, women Friday

Texas Aggies a lesson in aquatics Friday night at P.L Downs Natatorium.

The Longhorn men and women, ranked high in the national standings this year, took impressive wins despite the spirited showing by the Aggie swimmers.

The Texas men, ranked second most of the season, defeated the Ags, 65-39, while the Texas women won,

One bright spot in the A&M women's performance was that of junior Tracy Johnston, who qualified for the AIAW Nationals with a 2:08.4 time in the 200-meter breast stroke

Johnston led the Aggie women also by winning the 100-meter backstroke in 1:07.29.

Philis Burns was second in the 100-meter freestyle in 51.18 while Tori Nelson was second in the 500meter freestyle with a 5:18 perform-

The men, on the other hand, had a little more success against the superior Longhorn team, as they scored three individual firsts, led by the consistent Pat Roche.

Roche, who has led the team all year, won the 200-meter intermediate in 1:58.8, while Rick Ranzau took the 100-meter freestyle in 47.9 and freestyle with a 4:39.5 showing.

The 200-meter freestyle relay team of Craig Buchmann, Ed Kahil, Ranzau and Mark Scott won that

HALL OF FAME

Welcome Back Aggies!

TUESDAY NIGHT...

Music by "Loners" All single shot drinks 60 oz. pitcher of Lone Star Admission $2.00 per person

WEDNESDAY NIGHT...

Music by "Silver Creek" A&M students get in FREE! with I.D. and valid identification Pitcher Beer $250

THURSDAY NIGHT...

Music by "Deboniares" Admission $2.00 per person

THE TEXAS HALL OF FAME OFF 2818 IN BRYAN

Men's All Fall Suits All Fall Sport Coats All Wool Sweaters All Fall Trousers Selected All-Weather

Women's All Tweed Blazers

(including Harris')

All Wool Skirts All Wool Slacks IZOD Sweaters All Turtlenecks

Coats & Outer Wear Selected Outerwear Excludes basic blazers.

Alterations

All Sales Final Culpepper Plaza

Open Thursday til 8 PM

Our interest bearing checking accounts have a $300 minimum balance and pay you 5.47% effective annual yield.

A Brazos Savings MoneyStore checking account pays you 51/4% interest on the balance in your account. You pay no service charges with a minimum balance of $300. (If your balance falls below $300, there is a $10 fee but no matter what your balance, we still pay you 51/4%, compounded continuously.) There is no extra charge for telephone bill paying or automatic bill paying (if you choose to use either or both of these MoneyStore customers can withdraw cash from any of the 11 Brazos Savings offices in Central Texas or from the drive-thru facilities at most offices. With the MoneyStore Photo Card, your identity is assured no waiting for computer authorization or signature verification

There are 3 Brazos Savings offices in Bryan-College Station: downtown Bryan, 2800 Texas Avenue in midtown and in College Station at Texas Avenue at Southwest Parkway. There are a total of 11 drive-thru lanes

Check on Brazos Savings. It's easy to open a MoneyStore account. And we'll pay you while you use it.

Main Office: 2800 Texas Avenue / Bryan