Ag gymnasts start schedule

The Texas A&M University men's gymnastics team starts its spring schedule this weekend with a meet in Hobbs, N.M.

Team president Rick Zapata said Monday the meet will be a "warm up" due to the fact the team didn't get much practice together over the Christmas Break.

However, several members of the team did hone their skills by attending the Winter Sun Clinic in Fort Worth.

"It mostly was a clinic designed to improve skills and attitudes," said Zapata.

"This spring will be kind of touch and go for awhile," he said. "We have to get things going first and get organized because the holiday season didn't work out for us."

Approximately 10 members will be going to New Mexico.

Among those going and their specialties are team captain Mark Hartwell, ringman, floor and vault; Ray Moltz, all-around; David Semon, all-around; Jim Foght, rings and pommel horse; Zapata, all-around; Kenny Fontenot, floor vault and high bar; and Francisco Sun, pommel horse and parallel bars.

Semon and Fontenot are new team members.

"The team is about average at the start of the semester," said Zapata. "We have to get over these initial jitters, you know (at the New Mexico meet). Once you get on the floor and going, it kind of gets you motivated."

Following this weekend's meet, the next event on the Aggies' calendar will be a meet against Texas Feb. 7 in Austin.

Women's golf

The Texas A&M women's golf team, after an excellent fall semester that saw the Aggies consistently place higher in every tournament entered than in the fall of 1979, has been ranked 10th among Division I teams in the nation.

The rankings were made by the AIAW, and were based upon the team's fall performance.

Women's tennis

Texas A&M freshman Sonja Hutcherson of Memphis, Texas, has been named Tennis Player of the Year for the third straight time by the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame in Amarillo.

As a high school player at Memphis, she won four straight Class 1 state singles titles, qualified for five national tournaments through the summer and last fall moved into the No. 3 singles spot at A&M, compiling a 6-4 record.

Women's track

Head women's track coach Bill Nix has named a 13-woman Texas A&M squad in an indoor triangular track and field meet against Baylor and LSU in Baton Rouge, La. Saturday.

The Aggie women last weekend finished third in the Sooner Indoor Relays in Oklahoma City with only seven competitors.

This week's entrants, by events:
60-yard dash — Sandra Cooper, Jana Graves, Evelyn Smith.
60-yard hurdles — Ellen Smith, Dena Spier.
440-yard dash — Cooper, Graves, Evelyn Smith.
660-yard dash — Ellen Smith, Paula Lake, Spier.
880-yard dash — Diane Harrell, Beverly Porter.
1,000-yard run — Barbara Collinsworth, Suzanne Sheffield.
One-mile run — Collinsworth.
Two-mile run — Adelaide Bratten, Marilee Matheny.
Mile relay — Cooper, Graves, Evelyn Smith, Ellen Smith.

Men's wrestling

The Texas A&M University Wrestling Club will be in Springfield, Mo. tonight for a match against Southwest Missouri State. The Aggies were 0-3-1 in match play over the holiday break.

Racquetball

The A&M Racquetball Club will send seven members to Fort Worth for the Texas State Championships Saturday.

The meet is sanctioned by the U.S. Racquetball Association. Six men and one woman will be attending from Texas A&M.

The club will have its spring organizational meeting Feb. 1 in room 204 of the Rudder Tower. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

The team currently practices from 7-9 p.m. on courts 5-7 in the new courts.

Team members competing in the state championships will be club president Mark Bewley, Mike Hare, Ed Ketterer, Thomas Brow, John Marinos, Oscar Daiz and J.J. Risch.

Hare won the state B division championships last November in San Antonio. That event was sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Racquetball Association.

Bewley said anyone interested in racquetball is welcome in the club.
