SMU, Arkansas also win

Coogs deck Bears in SWC action

Here's a rundown of Monday's SWC basketball action:

HOUSTON 53, BAYLOR 51

WACO—Houston's Michael Young snapped an eight-minute stall with a layup with two seconds remaining to give the Cougars a 53-51 win over Baylor in Southwest Conference basketball Monday night. With the game locked at 51, the Cougars held the ball and maneu-vered for eight minutes. With six seconds left in the game, Rob Williams shot from the baseline and missed. Young snatched the ball out of the scramble that followed and sank the game-winning goal to finish with six points for the night.

Baylor's Terry Teagle led all scorers with 23 points, pushing his career tally to 1,379 and breaking Darrell Hardy's record of 1,360 to become the all-time high scorer for the Bears.

Williams led the Cougars with 19. The victory gives Houston sole possession of first place in the SWC with a 6-1 league record, 15-3 on the year. The Bears dropped to 5-2 and 10-7.

SMU 58, TEXAS TECH 48

LUBBOCK—Freshman guard David Gadis scored 18 points, 13 of them in the final eight and a half minutes of play Monday night to lead the SMU Mustangs to a 58-48 Southwest Conference basketball victory over slumping Texas Tech.

SMU took advantage of Tech's sloppy play and horrendous field goal shooting, 11 of 35, in the second half to erase a 24-20 deficit at intermission and record their third conference victory against five losses.

While Tech, 3-4, could manage only four field goals in the final nine and a half minutes of action, Gadis took over for the Mustangs, hitting one field goal and 11 free throws.

Gadis tied the score at 41-41 on a pair of free throws with 8:26 left to play. Following a Tech turnover, Dave Piehler canned a 23-foot jumper with 7:01 to go that gave SMU a 43-41 advantage, its first lead of the evening.

Gadis was the game's leading scorer. He was joined in double figures by teammates Welch and Piehler with 15 and 14 points respectively.

ARKANSAS 57, RICE 52

HOUSTON—U.S. Reed's two steals and Scott Hastings' seven quick points off a spread offense keyed the Arkansas Razorbacks to a comfortable second-half lead and to a 57-52 Southwest Conference victory over the Rice Owls Monday night.

Tough defense throughout by the Razorbacks caused Rice, the SWC's third-place team, to shoot 48 percent and fall for the 19th straight time to Arkansas.

Arkansas went into its four-corner spread offense with 13:35 to play and a 33-32 lead. In the next eight minutes, Reed stole two inbounds passes, Hastings broke loose for seven points and the Razorbacks increased their lead to 48-36.

Arkansas, 4-3 in SWC play, moved into a tie with Rice in the league. Both teams trail Houston, 6-1, and Baylor, 5-2.

After stealing the ball, Texas A&M's Reggie Roberts raced down the court and slammed in this dunk early in the second half of Monday night's contest with the Texas Longhorns. Longhorns won, 67-63, to drop the Aggies 1-6 in the SWC thus far.

Samson now the VP in NCAA District 6

Dr. Charles H. Samson, acting president of Texas A&M University and president of the Southwest Conference, has been named vice president of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, announced James Frank, NCAA president Monday.

Frank said Samson was appointed to a four-year term as vice president representing NCAA District 6, a position which also includes membership on the NCAA Council, organization's primary group with legislative matters. Samson succeeds Kenneth Herrick of Texas A&M as Texas A&M's representative on the SWC faculty representative committee in 1979. He has also been a member of the Texas A&M Athletic Council since 1972 and was named SWC president in 1979.
