Dallas indoor meet may become 'best'

United Press International
DALLAS — Big-time track and field came to Texas last weekend and it appears that it will be back.

"There's no doubt," said world indoor mile record holder Eamonn Coghlan of Ireland, "that this will become one of the best, if not the best, indoor meets in the United States. There is no doubt."

Coghlan and a field of international stars took part in the first Dallas Times Herald Invitational, a meet held in the 1-year-old Reunion Arena.

A crowd of almost 12,000 showed up despite inclement weather and for their troubles they saw two world records, one American record and the longest triple jump ever recorded in this country.

The performances were helped along by a new track built for the occasion and all the competitors agreed it was extra fast.

"We were helped by the fact that the track was very fast," said Stanley Floyd, who broke the world record in the 60-yard dash with a clocking of 6.04. "And we were helped by there being a great field here. It was the best field I've ever competed against in a 60-yard race."

Floyd, now enrolled at the University of Houston, was timed in 6.04 in both his trial heat and in the finals, where he nipped Georgia's Mel Latany. Among the also-rans were Harvey Gance, Herkie Walls, Jerome Deal and Georgia football star Herschel Walker, who finished fourth in his heat and did not make the finals.

Alice Brown, running for the Shaklee Track Club in Los Angeles, also set a world record of 6.62 in the women's 60.

Aggie tracksters shine

Several members of the Texas A&M University men's track team turned in fine performances Saturday in the Dallas Times-Herald Invitational at Reunion Arena.

SWC champion Leslie Kerr led the Ags with a third place finish in the men's 440-yard dash, recording a time of 47.99.

Olympian Jimmy Howard was third in the high jump, leaping 7-4. Competing in a star-studded field, freshman Aggie Rod Richardson took fifth place in the 60-yard dash with a 6.18 time. Stanley Floyd took first with a world-record 6.04 showing.

Mike Glaspie also finished fifth in his specialty, the 60-yard hurdles, with a time of 7.31. Renaldo Nehemiah won the event with a 6.93 showing.

Both Richardson and Glaspie won their respective preliminary heats. Former Aggie Tim Scott, the 1980 SWC champion in the shot put, also put in a fine showing in that event, giving SMU's Michael Carter a run for his money before falling short for second place. Carter had a throw of 65-2.2 feet, while Scott, now represented the Pacific Coast Track Club, finished with a 63-2 3/4 effort.

Kevin McGinnis of Texas A&M was sixth in the shot at 57-5.
