RHA restructure discussion sole topic of meeting tonight

By BERNIE FETTE

The proposed restructuring of the Residence Hall Association will be the sole topic of discussion at a special RHA meeting tonight in 209 Harrington at 7:00.

At the last meeting, after an hour of discussion, the plan was voted down. "I don't think they were against it," RHA President Sherrie Balcar said. "I think they just wanted to study it some more."

The main goal of the new plan,

Balcar said, is "to make the committees in RHA more effective. We have many new programs coming up this semester and the present structure is not effective at all."

The restructuring would change the number of members on the executive council from seven to four, dropping the chaplain, public relations director and the national communications coordinator. These three, Balcar said, are appointed positions while the other four are elected.

Also, the new plan would establish five departments covering certain areas as opposed to the existing 17 committees. This would provide for more consistency and effectiveness in the workings of the various programs, Balcar said.

Balcar said the plan would also give general members a better opportunity to get involved. "And I think that's really important because there's a lot of young leadership out there," she said.

KKK Valentine's rally to show animosity for Vietnamese, support for U.S. fishers

United Press International
CLEAR LAKE — Ku Klux Klans Day rally — featuring the burning of men from around the country are being invited to attend a Valentine's Day rally — featuring the burning of an effigy of a Vietnamese fishing boat — at Santa Fe, Texas, according to Klan officials.

In an interview with the Clear Lake Daily Citizen, the klansman who asked not to be identified showed more than 1,000 maps of the exact location of the Feb. 14 rally.

He said some of the maps were turned over to a Grand Dragon distribution, and others would be distributed in the Seabrook-Kearney area.

Tensions there have run high between native and Vietnamese fishermen over rights to the water in Calveston Bay, and two Vietnamese boats were burned in January.

The klansman said a replica of a Vietnamese fishing vessel named "USS Vietcong" and flying a communist flag will be burned in the rally, apparently to demonstrate the Klan's sympathy for American fishermen.

The klansman claimed Vietnamese fishermen are communitarian backed.

"The purpose of this rally is to scare the Vietcong (sic) or the American public," he said. "It's to let people know what's happening. The country is being overrun by the Vietcong and the communists."

He said Klan leaders — including Imperial Wizards and Grand Dragons — have been invited to attend, he said.

The Saturday evening rally will be preceded by an afternoon fish fry, he said.
