Student leaders to share

By SHARON D. RENFROW
Battalion Reporter

Student government leaders from many southern universities will have a first-time chance to share ideas, problems and areas of strength at the Conference On Student Government Associations to be held at Texas A&M University Feb. 15-17.

"The main aim of this conference is to better equip student governments in areas of student services," Joe Jordan, programming director for the conference, said.

Representatives are expected from 30 schools in Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

Along with Texas A&M, six other universities — North Texas State, Stephen F. Austin, Southern Methodist University, Texas Tech and the University of Houston — will be sponsoring COSGA.

These six and Baylor University met at TCU in November and planned the conference, Jordan said, discussing workshop topics and setting the tone for the conference.

"We had a list of 20 topics from each of the invited schools and out of those we chose the workshops," he said.

The workshops will focus on student services, student representation and student-advisor communication. Dr. Carolyn Adair, Texas A&M's director of student activities and the student body advisor, will lead the advisor workshop in Room 203 of the Memorial Student Center.

Other workshops will be held on the fifth and sixth floors of Rudder Tower.

The central purpose of COSGA, Jordan said, is to bring student government representatives together to learn new ideas and have a good time.

Jock snaps over Valentine gift.

Dear Ann:

Athletically I'm an All-American. Romantically I'm a nerd. I'm in love with a fox. But the competition is rough. What'll I give her for Valentine's Day?

Nervously Yours,
Chicken Hunk

Dear Chicken:

Don't punt. Send her flowers. It's probably the best play you ever made. And the easiest. Just go to your nearest FTD Florist. He has the perfect Valentine gift. A beautiful bouquet that comes in a special bud vase. Even better, you can afford it. Remember, when in doubt, rely on the magic of flowers. It's the only way a chicken can catch a fox.

Good hunting.

Helping you say it right.

The FTD Valentine Bud Vase is usually available for less than $10.00. As an independent businessman, each FTD Florist sets his own prices. Service charges and delivery may be additional. ©1981 Florists' Transworld Delivery.
