Rifle team

The Texas A&M rifle team defeated the University of Texas at Arlington in a weekend Southwest Rifle Association (SWRA) small-bore rifle match in Arlington.

A&M finished with a total of 2,171 out of a possible 2,400 to increase their season SWRA record to a perfect 4-0. UTA finished with 1,871.

The Aggies were led by team captain Mike Winzeler who finished first with a score of 562 out of a possible 600. Next for the Aggies were Glen Park (547), John Heye (541), Kurt Nauck (521), Troy Smith (474) and Renee Ruth (463).

Following the match the team traveled to Ft. Worth for a NCAA air rifle match where they lost to TCU.

The Horned Frogs finished with 1,460 out of a possible 1,600 to win the match while the Aggies shot 1,370.

Top finisher for the Aggies was Kurt Nauck, hitting 362 out of 400. Glen Park collected 355, John Heye hit 336 and Troy Smith finished with 317. Renee Ruth, again shooting for experience, finished with 317.

The A&M rifle team returns to action this weekend when they will again face TCU in a small-bore competition in Ft. Worth.

Sports Car Club

Several members of the Texas A&M Sports Car Club traveled to Austin Sunday to participate in an Austin Spokes Sports Car Club Autocross at Highland Mall.

With 59 drivers participating in the event, "Team Honda" — made up of Bill LaBarge, Chris Hope and Paul Dotsun — proved its outstanding driving ability with all three members placing.

LaBarge in his Honda GT1200 placed first in D Modified against some stiff competition. Hope finished second in a Honda Civic in the E Prepared division. In one of the larger classes, G Stock, Dotsun, driving a Honda Civic, came home with fourth place.

Fencing

The Texas A&M Fencing Tournament was this weekend, and the host Aggies added a few more medals to an already fine spring collection.

Pauletta Wrentz took first place in women's foil, which was fenced Sunday, to lead the Aggies.

Martin Frey placed second in men's foil, and teammate Kenny Peck made the finals in that event.

Frey also placed second in sabre, with Andy Dunks taking third. In men's epee, Mike Scott was second after losing in a barrage for first with Jim Sheffield. August Skopik was third.

Also, three Texas A&M fencers — Skopik, Larry Sharp and Denise Ehrlich — will be going to the Junior-Olympics this weekend in Cleveland, Ohio.

Men's golf

The Aggie men's golf team could manage only 15th place in the Pan American Invitational in Monterrey, Mexico, last week.

Texas A&M tied for that position with a 908 team total, while Oral Roberts won the competition at 867. Individual winner was USC's Ron Commens, who managed a 211 in the three-day event.

A&M finishers: Danny Briggs, 72-78-73, 223; Richard Cromwell, 75-76-74, 225; Bart Cobb, 77-76-75, 228; Mike Miller, 77-77-78, 232; and Steve Bodenheimer, 78-77-82, 237.

Women's track

Suzanne Sheffield set a Texas A&M record in winning the 880-yard dash at Oklahoma City Saturday night. Her time was 2:16.11.

The Aggies' mile relay foursome of Sandra Cooper, Ellen Smith, Evelyn Smith and Jana Graves ran a season's best of 3:55.72 to finish third in that event.

Women's tennis

The women's tennis team will confront McClennon Junior College today on the Omar Smith Varsity Courts at 2 p.m.

The Aggies defeated Southwest Texas State Saturday in their first action of the spring, 8-1.

Coogs, Arkansas gear up for game

United Press International
It was a well-publicized case of flu and it may have had a great deal to do with Arkansas' three-game losing streak last month.

But all the medicine has done its job, Scott Hastings' bout with illness is over and the Razorbacks as a whole no longer seem to be suffering.

"I heard a television commentator mention on the air that Hastings is finally over the flu," the Arkansas center said last Saturday night. "So I decided to play like it."

Hastings did just that in scoring 26 points against TCU in Arkansas' 63-48 win Saturday evening and it sets up the prospects for what could be the game of the year in the Southwest Conference next weekend.

Houston and Arkansas are currently running 1-2 in the race for the regular season SWC title and those teams tangle in Fayetteville next Saturday. It will be a high noon tipoff with the game being regionally televised.

The Cougars do not have to play before their trip to Arkansas, but the Razorbacks must face the Baylor Bears tonight and Baylor has a habit of playing well in the Ozarks.

But if Arkansas does whip the Bears it will move the Hogs to within a game of the Cougars going into their showdown.

Hurt Ags take third in tourney

By RICHARD OLIVER
Sports Editor
The Texas A&M University wrestling team, burdened by injuries, took only six team members to Longview for the LeTourneau Invitational and finished third.

The injuries came at a very inopportune time, as the state championships are right around the corner, Feb. 20-21 in Lubbock.

"If we can get a healthy team," said Aggie captain Bob Santini, "we'll be the team to beat (at the state meet). If not it's going to be sketchy. You can't win without your best."

That rule held true this weekend. With only 60 percent of the team present, the Aggies had to rely on a great performance from those wrestlers at the meet for a good finish overall — and they got it as three Aggies took firsts in the event.

Texas A&M finishers:
118-pound — Ed Conway, Texas A&M, beat Terrill, Richmond College for 2nd.
134-pound — Greg Lewallen, Texas A&M, beat Bertsh, Southwest Texas State, for 1st.
142-pound — John Sweatt, Texas A&M, beat Stahl, LeTourneau, 22-8, for 1st.
160-pound — Damian Cook, Texas A&M, beat Parks, LeTourneau, 10-0, for 3rd.
190-pound — Bob Santini, Texas A&M, beat Bernstein, Richmond, 11-5, for 1st.

The third place finish for Texas A&M was the worst the team has done this semester. In two previous meets this spring, the Ags placed first and second.

The overall spring and fall dual meet record for the Aggies is 6-3-1.

Brawl interrupts New Mexico tournament

United Press International
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — The Lobo Open Wrestling Tournament was interrupted for about 10 minutes by a brawl involving wrestlers and spectators that caused teams from Fort Lewis and New Mexico Highlands to be tossed out of the meet.

The brawl broke out during a match in the 158-pound division between Don Fini of Fort Lewis and Gil Lucero of Highlands. Witnesses said it started after Lucero's father yelled out encouragement to his son.

No one was injured seriously, but witnesses said one wrestler was hit in the head with a chair.

Dapper Club honors Green

United Press International
PITTSBURGH — All-America defensive lineman Hugh Green of the University of Pittsburgh was presented with the Dapper Dan Club's Man of the Year award Sunday night at a banquet attended by 2,200 spectators and sports stars at the Hilton Hotel.

Green, who was honored for his achievements during his four-year career at Pitt, said the Dapper Dan award was "very special."

"Winning an award like this makes me proud," he said. "It makes everything in my four years at Pitt mean that much extra."
