Men's swimming

Texas A&M won five of 13 events in losing a dual swimming meet at Texas Tech last Saturday, 66-47.

Mike Hoche won the 1,000-yard freestyle in 9:47.944. Rick Ranzau won the 200-yard freestyle in 1:45.408. Craig Buchmann won the 50-yard freestyle in 21.868. Kevin Londrigan took the 200-yard individual medley in 2:01.209 and the Aggie foursome of Mark Scott, Tom Ingram, Ed Kabil and Ranzau won the 400-yard freestyle relay in 3:15.776.

The Aggies will be in the SMU Invitational in Dallas Friday and Saturday.

Women's swimming

Texas Tech won the meet's final event, the freestyle relay, to come from behind and nip Texas A&M, 77-72, in a women's dual meet last Saturday in Lubbock.

The Aggies, however, took eight first places. The Ags' 400-medley relay team won in 4:08.245. Tracy Johnston won three events for Texas A&M — the 50-yard backstroke in 28.398, the 100-yard freestyle in 54.602 and the 50-yard butterfly in 27.460.

Tori Tessen registered the other win in the 500-yard freestyle in 5:21.634.

Women's golf

Coach Kitty Holley is putting her Texas A&M golfers through qualifying rounds to determine who will play in the first tournament of the season, the Houston Baptist Invitational that starts Sunday and runs through Tuesday.

Football

Tickets for Texas A&M's football banquet, scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Feb. 21 in the east wing of Duncan Dining Hall, are available to the general public for $12 each.

Tickets can be purchased from the ticket office in G. Rollie White Coliseum or at the football office in Rudder Tower.

Men's basketball

Athletic Ticket Manager Jim Kotch announced Tuesday that there are 500 tickets available here for the Feb. 21 basketball game between the Texas Aggies and Texas in Austin.

The tickets are $5 each and can be purchased at the Texas A&M ticket office in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Volleyball

The Texas A&M men's and women's volleyball teams, along with two other Aggie women's squads, will be competing in the sixth annual Texas A&M Valentine's Day Invitational Saturday.

Tickets may be bought at a table in the MSC through Friday. All other matches except the finals are free.

Women's basketball

The Texas A&M University women's basketball team came from behind to beat the SMU Mustangs Tuesday night in overtime, 73-69.

Women's tennis team beats McClellon, 8-0

By RICK STOLLE

Battalion Staff
After beating Southwest Texas University, 8-1, Saturday, there is little left for the Texas A&M women's tennis team to do but practice up for an upcoming tournament, right? Wrong.

The Aggies swept McClellon Junior College Tuesday, 8-0, in a match that had been called up, unexpectedly, late last week.

"They were awfully young," said coach Jan Cannon. "But I only played one senior and one junior today. I played all of our freshmen and sophomores."

McClellon was one girl short and was forced to play one of their girls twice at the fifth and sixth spots. They also did not play a third doubles match.

In singles: Liliana Fernandez beat Donna Nueringer 6-2, 6-0; Pam Hill defeated Tammie Kelley 6-2, 6-2; Amy Closs defeated Elda Salinas 6-0, 6-0; Sonja Hutcherson beat Melissa Mooty 6-2, 6-1 and Kim Alston, who played both the five and six singles lost to both Mary Hise 6-1, 6-1 and Kendall Curry 6-4, 6-2 of A&M.

The doubles matches saw Closs-Laura Hanna defeat Nueringer-Kelley 6-4, 6-1 and Maylen Hooton-Judy Willard beat Salinas-Mooty 6-0, 6-2.

The Aggies are preparing to leave Thursday for a five-way meet in Tempe, Ariz. The team will face Pac-10 teams Arizona State University, Arizona University, Grand Canyon University and Cal-Fullerton.

Cannon said it will be a tough tournament in which each team will play head to head dual matches with all the other teams in the tournament.

"All the other matches are conference matches," she said. "I expect them to be ready to play good tennis."

She said she is hoping for a 3-1 showing from the tournament but will wait and play each match as it comes.

"Arizona State will be the strongest team there," she said. "The rest of the teams, we included, are evenly matched."

The lineup for the Ags will be the same it has been for every match of the young spring season.

"We've been playing consistently, I see no reason to change the line-up now," she said.

Singles are scheduled to be: Fernandez, Hill, Hooton, Closs, Hutcherson and Hanna.

Doubles will be: Closs-Hanna, Hill-Hutcherson and Fernandez-Hooton.

Judy Willard will go as the seventh singles and extra player. Should an injury occur during a match or should another team bring a seventh player, Willard would play.

Cannon indicated she would pull Fernandez from doubles should she show signs of tiring or her shoulder bothering her.
