

THIS WEEK

Movies

Check theatres for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice.

Campus Theater 846-6512

Seems Like Old Times: Goldie Hawn and Chevy Chase, two extremely talented comedians, star in only an average, but still funny Neil Simon movie. Chase plays Hawn's ex-bank robber husband who eventually clashes with her current husband who's out to capture the inept criminal. Rated PG.

Sex Worlds: The Aggie Frolics return in time to warm up an otherwise chilly winter. This skin flick goes around the world — in 80 ways. Midnight Friday and Saturday. Rated X.

Manor East 823-8300

Song of the South: Walt Disney presents a basically animated rendition of the Uncle Remus tales, complete with B'r'er Rabbit and friends. The color is, of course, wonderful. This is the movie that gave us the classic song "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah." Rated G.

Fort Apache, The Bronx: Paul Newman and Edward Asner, two acting heavyweights, team in this New York police drama in which the police are fighting an almost losing battle against the gangs, junkies and pyromaniacs of the Bronx. Rated R. See review on page four of this issue.

Charlie Chan and the Curse of the Dragon Lady: Another cute comedy that pokes fun at old movies. This time the old Charlie Chan films are satirized. Angie Dickinson stars, but there's no guarantee her hair will be combed. Rated PG.

Blues Brothers: "Saturday Night Live" dropouts John Belushi and Dan Ackroyd continue to pretend to be blues singers. First was their gold album, now it's their movie which features some real soul singers like Aretha Franklin and the James Brown. The boys are looking for ways to save the orphanage in which they were reared. Midnight Friday and Saturday. Rated R.

Caddyshack: Bill Murray and Chevy Chase are definitely all right in this country club version of "Animal House." Best of all is Rodney Dangerfield, who's hilarious every time he's on screen. Also starring is Ted Knight. Don't miss the gopher get down and boogie to Kenny Loggins' good music. Midnight Friday and Saturday. Rated R.

MSC Box Office 845-2916

The Raven: A ghoulish group of actors including Vincent Price, Boris Karloff and Jack Nicholson team in a rather bizarre rendition of the Edgar Allen Poe classic poem. Those who enjoyed the animated "Wizards" should like this 1963 film. Thursday at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. in Rudder Theatre. Rated G.

Brubaker: Robert Redford plays a new warden who discovers there's just as much corruption behind bars as there is outside the prison. Not a big box office hit because Redford just doesn't flash that Hollywood smile too many times. Friday and Saturday at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. in Rudder Theatre. Rated R.

Dawn of the Dead: WARNING: This is an innovative, hilarious satire on the mental zeros who exist in contemporary American society, but this film is extremely gruesome and definitely not recommended for sensitive people. In vivid color, you'll see zombies actually devour live human beings literally to the bone. And if you get sick easily, please don't go drunk. Friday and Saturday, midnight only in Rudder Theatre. Rated R for ridiculously repulsive.

A Small of Circle of Friends: Sometimes it's not easy to be preppie at Harvard — especially when the Vietnam War is raging. And it's even harder to have a meaningful relationship. Brad Davis and Jameson Parker try to survive being both brilliant and lonely. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theatre. Rated R.

My Brilliant Career: Highly-praised Australian film about a girl living in the Australian Outback. It's an excellent story in a beautiful setting. Another fine film on Classics Night, which is becoming a Texas A&M tradition. Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theatre. Rated G.

Plitt Cinema I&II 846-6714

My Bloody Valentine: First it was "Halloween" then it was "Friday the 13th." Now it's Valentine's Day — guess it's time for another massacre. Holidays just aren't sacred anymore these days. Rated R.

Stir Crazy: The two funniest men in movies, Richard Pryor and Gene Wilder, are paired in what should be an absolutely hilarious film. Well, it's not quite that great, but it's still pretty good. Pryor and Wilder are accidentally accused of robbing a bank and accidentally sent to prison. They should have been carted to the funny farm. Rated R.

Music

Backstage: Glen Berridge starts off the weekend on Thursday with a blend of folk and traditional music. Draft beer, 35 cents during happy hour. Friday and Saturday nights Lyle Lovett will entertain from 8 p.m. until closing for guests eating dinner, or simply enjoying happy hour 5-7 p.m., when bar drinks are 75 cents and all call drinks are half price.

Grins: Eagle Bone Whistle will bring blue grass music to Grins all weekend. Thursday and Friday nights, Lyle Lovett will open the show at 8 p.m. Happy hour from 4-7 p.m. all weekend, with $1 cover charge Thursday and $1.50 cover Friday and Saturday.

Lakeview: Tradition continues with Dennis Ivey and The Waymen playing country hits until midnight Thursday. Beer by the glass, 5 cents; by the pitcher, $1. Johnny Bush and The Bandaleros play for $4 per person Saturday.

Rebels: Hickory Wind will set the scene for three nights of rock 'n roll, with half price drinks, shrimp, chips and hot sauce during happy hour Friday and Saturday. No cover.

Rosewood Junction: With two-for-one happy hour until 7 p.m. and a $1 cover charge all weekend, the bluegrass and folk sounds of Elmo and Patsy can be heard.

Texas Hall of Fame: Heels will be kicking when the Debonaires from Taylor, Texas play country and western music Thursday until midnight. $2 cover charge. Friday, Johnny Lyon and the Country Nu-Notes with special guest star Jim Chestnut will play from 9 p.m.-1 a.m., with $2 cover. Dawn Glass and Country Revue entertain with western style music Saturday. $3 cover.

Etc.

Valentine's Day: Saturday is Valentine's Day. For an in-depth look at the celebration, see pages 8 and 9.

Sophomore Ball: The Texas A&M University Class of '83 will have its formal ball Saturday from 8:30 till 1. Music will be by Dennis Ivey and the Waymen, and tickets are $8 per couple.

Beatlemania: MSC Town Hall presents Beatlemania, a musical tribute to the Beatles, Monday at 7 in Rudder Auditorium. Tickets are available at the MSC Box Office.

OPAS: The Memorial Student Center Opera and Performing Arts Society presents the Romeros, a classical guitar duo, tonight at 8 in Rudder Auditorium. Tickets are available at the MSC Box Office. See the story about the Romeros on page four of this issue.

Art Exhibit: The art of Texas A&M University artist-in-residence Paul Suttman will be on display in Rudder Exhibit Hall until February 25. The exhibit includes sculptures and working drawings.

FOCUS

Editor . . . . . Cathy Saathoff
Assistant Editor . . . . . Susan Hopkins
Staff Writer . . . . . Kathleen McElroy

Focus will accept any items submitted for publication, although the decision to publish lies solely with the editor. Deadline is 5 p.m. the Thursday before publication.

- Who originated the kiss?
By Susan Hopkins . . . . . 8
- Women can learn to take care of themselves, and get P.E. credit for it.
By Laura Hatch . . . . . 5
- It'll cost a lot more to say "I love you" this year.
By Dana Smelser . . . . . 9

On the cover: What can be said about a big heart and a batch of lips? Saturday is Valentine's Day, and you can find out about the origins of the celebration and of that favorite Valentine tradition, kissing, on pages 8 and 9 of this issue.