Med school wants grant for minorities

By DIANA SULTENFUSS
Battalion Reporter

The Texas A&M University College of Medicine has requested a $138,000 grant from the Department of Health and Human Services for orientation of financially and educationally disadvantaged students.

The application for the grant proposes a three-year health careers opportunity program beginning in winter 1982 involving actual classroom and laboratory experiences for disadvantaged medical school applicants.

The program will involve about 45 people, 15 each year for a three-year period.

Students will attend classes, work in research laboratories and attend seminars which describe medicine and medical practices.

"This will give the applicants the opportunity to interface with our current students," said Dr. William E. Ward, Texas A&M associate dean of medicine in charge of student affairs.

Ward said the goals of the proposal are to identify students from disadvantaged backgrounds seeking education leading to a medical degree and also to orient students in application to medical school.

EVERYONE WELCOME!

The quickest way to get emergency money.

An emergency stop for repairs can wipe out even the best-heeled traveler. Luckily, all you need is the price of a phone call to get you the money before your car gets off the lift. Here's what to do when you need money in a hurry.

1. Call home. Report the situation, and tell the folks they can get emergency cash to you fast by phone.

2. Ask them to call Western Union's toll-free number, 800-325-6000 (in Missouri, 800-342-6700), anytime, day or night. They charge the money and the service fee to their MasterCard* or VISA† card. A Western Union Charge Card Money Order, up to $1,000, will be flashed to the Western-Union office or agent nearest your emergency.

3. Pick up your money—usually within two hours—at the local Western Union office or agent. There are 8,500 nationally, except in Alaska. Conveniently, about 900 locations are open 24 hours. It's that easy.

Be sure to remind your parents about our toll-free number. It's all they need to call Western Union to the rescue.

*The MasterCard name is owned by Interbank Card Association.
†The VISA name is owned by VISA International.
