TV news subpoenaed in Daniel trial

LIBERTY — Attorneys representing Vickie Daniel, charged with the January slaying of her husband, subpoenaed a Houston television station Tuesday asking for transcripts of news shows from Sunday and Monday nights.

Channel 13 KTRK-TV news director Walt Hawver said he will comply with the subpoena and supply only the information that went on the air.

"We give them what was broadcasted and nothing more," Hawver said. Reporters are free to testify what they may have heard in court, but no staff member will divulge information told to them by sources, Hawver said.

Daniel's attorneys are concerned that information about the pending child custody and criminal trial is being leaked to the media, sources said.

Reporter Diana Fallis' subpoena states she must be in court Thursday, but Hawver said Fallis is not the reporter covering the Daniel case. He said he would probably send an attorney to court instead.

Daniel is charged with the Jan. 19 shooting death of her husband, former Texas House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. Her lawyer, Richard "Racehorse" Haynes, said the shooting was done in self-defense and his client was a battered wife.

Haynes has alluded during court hearings to possible drug use and homosexual activities by Price Daniel Jr.

Mrs. Daniel is expected to return to the Liberty County courthouse Wednesday for her third session with her lawyers and the attorneys representing her sister-in-law Jean Daniel Murph.

The two women are engaged in a court battle over custody of Daniel's two small boys. Murph said Daniel is an unfit mother and the children are in jeopardy if they stay with their mother.

Daniel has already answered questions posed by attorneys for 13 hours during Friday and Monday's deposition sessions. Her two other children from a previous marriage also have been scheduled for depositions today.

The custody hearing, which begins Thursday with the selection of a 12-person jury, may last several weeks. However, some of the attorneys dispute it will go on for more than a week.

After the custody trial, Daniel will still face the criminal charges of murder. During a routine court session last Wednesday, one of the attorneys, Harlan Friend, refused to waive Daniel's right to a speedy trial. Therefore, the criminal case must go to trial within 120 days of Daniel's arrest on Jan. 24, according to Texas law.

Clayton proposes using money for water bonds

AUSTIN — Speaker Bill Clayton told a House committee studying his proposal for a Water Trust Fund that water development in the state will become more crucial during the next 50 years because of the expected dramatic increase in population.

Clayton told the House Constitutional Amendments Committee that water from existing supplies will be insufficient to meet demand by 1990.

The speaker's proposed constitutional amendment would dedicate funds left in the state treasury at the end of each biennium to special funds to guarantee bonds for water projects and to pay off state bond debts.

"We'll have to look for outside sources for water very shortly," Clayton said.

Clayton's proposal would not use state funds to pay off bonds for water projects, but would use the fund to back bonds issued by local governments, thereby enabling the local governmental units to attain a better bond rating.

The speaker said that Texas' population will increase to 35 million by the year 2030, about a 175 percent increase from the current population.

"We've got to take care of our water needs or we'll end up with a water crisis that would be worse than any energy crisis," he said.

Ed Coltharp of Abilene, executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, said Clayton's proposed Water Trust Fund would not only benefit West Texas and the Panhandle, but also the remainder of the state.

"This bill is not a West Texas bill," he said. "It's a statewide bill."

Coltharp, who indicated his association represented 132 counties that comprise about 60 percent of the state, said that since the organization was formed 63 years ago, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce had supported a long-range water resource plan to meet future shortages.

"This is something that is long overdue," he said.

Duncan Ellison of Lubbock, executive director of Water Inc. of Lubbock, said most of the water development programs in the state were mostly financed with federal money.

"And that money is drying up," he said in reference to President Reagan's plan to cut federal spending and force the states to finance more of their projects.

Ellison said his organization has worked for more than a decade on a plan to import water to arid West Texas from other states and he said Clayton's proposal could help achieve that goal.

"This (the Water Trust Fund) is a vehicle that will encourage and accelerate development of water in the state," Ellison said.

Students get credits for living together

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Students at the University of Maryland are getting credit for living together in a state-owned apartment for a semester at a time.

"Resident Experience in Interpersonal Relations" is not as easy as it sounds, said Mary Stephenson, course instructor. Six academic credits are awarded to each student successfully passing the class.

"These are future counselors," said Lynn Piasno, a graduate assistant and landlady of the four apartments. "They are in a simulated family situation, learning how things work, so they can deal with families later on."

The students must keep a written log on their relationships with others.

"That's the hardest part," said Kathy Terry, a student. "I'm not in the habit of sitting down and writing out my feelings."

Many indicted in oil fraud

LONGVIEW — The Gregg County grand jury has indicted "numerous persons" in sealed indictments in an alleged multimillion dollar scheme of fraudulent oil pricing.

Authorities are seeking the indicted and would not release their names until they are arrested, said District Attorney Rob Foster. One of the principals has fled to South America, said Chuck Campbell, assistant state attorney general.

After a two-hour session with the grand jury, Foster said it had "returned two sealed indictments naming numerous persons."

The investigation began almost one year ago and included the Gregg County district attorney, the state attorney general, the Texas Railroad Commission and Texas Rangers.

It began when authorities caught a truck operator pumping "old" oil into a new well in East Texas. Old oil is crude oil from wells drilled before the 1973 Arab embargo and is priced cheaper than oil produced later.

BORN OF GOD

By our natural birth, we were not born of God. Rather, we were born of man. This is why the Bible calls mankind "the sons of men." But there is another birth available to men, and this is the spiritual birth, through which all the sons of men may become sons of God.

How To Receive The Spiritual Birth

The way to receive the spiritual birth is to believe in Jesus Christ and thus receive Jesus Christ. Receiving Jesus Christ into your life is equivalent to receiving this new birth. And our receiving comes through believing. You can receive Him by opening your heart and calling upon His name, "Lord Jesus, come unto me."

"But as many as received him (Jesus Christ), to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." John 1:12.

What Happens When I Believe In Christ?

The Bible says that "whosoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God" (1 John 5:1). By believing in Jesus, you receive Jesus and the forgiveness of your sins through His cleansing blood. By receiving Jesus, you are born of God. To be born of God is to receive God's eternal life, which is in Jesus Christ.

As seen in the above illustration, man is composed of three parts: body, soul, and spirit (see 1 Thess. 5:23). We use our body to live in the physical world, and our soul ("psuche") to engage in the psychological world. But our spirit is in us to contact the spiritual Kingdom of God. Since the time of our natural birth, our body and soul have been very much alive. But our spirit has not been alive. In fact, our spirit was dead towards God. This is why we need our spirits to be enlivened and regenerated. When our spirit comes alive, we are alive towards God, and God is living to us.

How Can I Be Sure That I Am Born of God?

First, the Bible says so, and God's word is to be trusted. Second, the Spirit Himself will bear witness with your spirit that you are a child of God (Rom. 8:16). Thus, you have the affirmation of the Bible and confirmation of the Spirit within. Read and re-read the Bible verses that are quoted in this article. And, also, realize that a new life is within you, giving you new desires, for spiritual things. Spontaneously, you will begin to love the Bible, to desire to fellowship with other Christians, and to follow after Christ. These are the signs that tell you that you are born of God.

CARP: MASTERS AT DECEPTION

Note: CARP (Collegiate Association for the Research of Principles) is a student organization currently seeking recognition at Texas A&M.

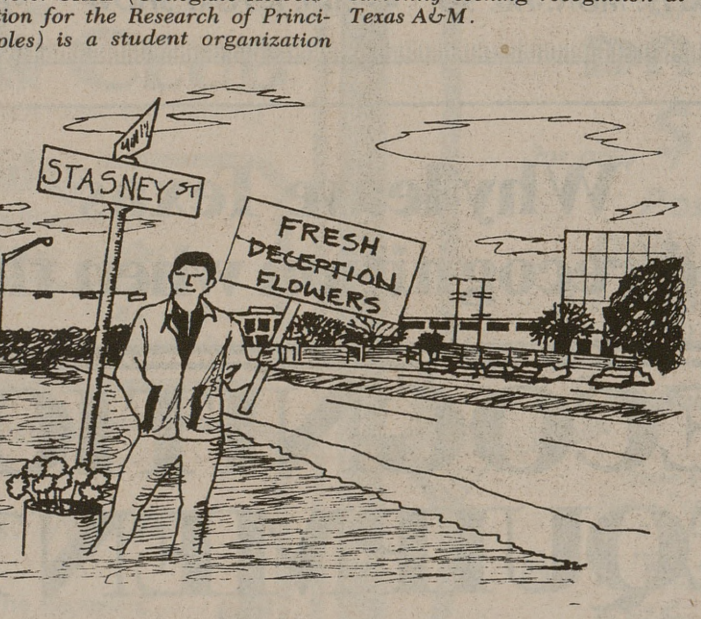

They appear as harmless, loving, giving, and concerned individuals. They talk about God, Jesus Christ, love, unity, and perfection. They open their homes to you and invite you on weekend retreats. They make you feel warm, wanted, and valuable.

But don't get sucked in too quickly. Behind the plastic smiles and fresh flowers lies a mountain of deception. Like the fish that bears the same name, they are scavengers — picking up phraseology used by other religious groups, especially Christians, in order to hide their true identity. Terms such as God, salvation, and Jesus Christ are only words which carry definitions much different than the hearer realizes.

The deception begins with the name of the parent organization behind CARP — "The Holy Spirit Association for the Unification of World Christianity" — better known as the Unification Church or the "Moonies". There is only one problem: there is nothing "Christian" about either the church or the organization. On the contrary, one of their major goals is the destruction of present day Christianity. According to Rev. Moon, the oriental mastermind behind the scheme, "God is now throwing Christianity away and is establishing a new religion, and the new religion is the Unification Church". (Time, Sept. 30, 1974) No Christian organization on this campus or church in this city sanctions in any way the teachings of Moon. The title "Christian" is only a cover-up to confuse unsuspecting individuals.

CARP itself claims to have no direct affiliation with the Unification Church. According to them (as printed in the Battalion last week), members of CARP are not required to be members of the church. This is another deception. Although there is no "requirement", CARP would be meaningless without Moon's web of theology. He established CARP as a means of promoting his homespun religion among students, and his teachings form the basis of the group's operations and goals. The Divine Principle, Moon's pot-luck "Bible", is the group's text and basis for all teaching. One may not be a part of the church when they join CARP, but they would certainly have no reason to continue unless they conformed to the church's doctrine.

Let's look a little further at this cleverly devised scheme.

DECEPTION: "Nothing in the Divine Principle contradicts the Bible... it is simply a deeper explanation of it."

TRUTH: This is not simply a deception, but an outright lie. Almost everything that CARP teaches is diametrically opposed to what the Bible clearly states and Christians believe. It is not an explanation, but a fabrication of a whole way of thinking cleverly sprinkled with enough Bible verses to make it appear "Christian". It is all part of the deception. The Bible is not taken literally, and means only what Moon has determined it to mean. (Did you know that the "original sin" was Eve having sex with Satan? Try finding that one in the Bible.)

DECEPTION? "We believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and that He died on the cross for our sin." Although this sounds pretty straight forward and fundamental, it is not. According to them, Jesus was only a perfect man who never came to die. His mission was to marry a perfect wife, have perfect children, and develop a perfect society and world. He utterly failed in His mission because the people refused to recognize and accept Him. His death was one of the greatest errors of history. The only "sin" His death paid for was the sin of refusing to recognize Him.

TRUTH: Jesus Christ claimed to be God in the flesh. He states numerous times that His mission was to die for the sin of mankind — the continual violation of God's eternal principles. He accomplished His mission at the cross. This truth is found from cover to cover in the Bible.

DECEPTION: "Jesus Christ rose from the dead." What they mean by this is that only His spirit rose; His body was given to Satan as a ransom for the people's rejection of Him.

Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead and appeared physically to hundreds of people over a period of forty days. He constantly foretold His bodily resurrection to His followers, and proved His diety by conquering death. The bodily resurrection stands as one of the most historically documented happenings in history. All born again Christians adhere to this without a doubt.

DECEPTION: "The Messiah will come a second time." However, when they say this, they don't mean Jesus Christ, but only someone with the spirit of Christ. The particular body will be that of a Korean, born in 1920. (Conveniently, Rev. Moon fulfills both of these.)

TRUTH: Christians are looking for and expecting the bodily return of Jesus Christ. There is no mention in the Bible of a little Korean taking the place of Jesus Christ's literal return. This is simply another cleverly devised tale developed by an egocentric, demonically-motivated individual who wants to set the world under his feet. (Moon's personal assets in Korea alone exceed $30 million. He sacrificially lives in a 25-room mansion in New York while his devoted followers contribute all their earnings to the "cause".)

DECEPTION: By following the teachings of Moon, man can eventually grow to perfection, have perfect families, and usher in the Kingdom of God (under Moon, of course) on earth.

TRUTH: The Bible clearly teaches exactly the opposite. Many throughout history have attempted to achieve perfection and develop a utopian society. However, the Bible clearly states that man's basic problem is not external (governments, society, etc.) — but internal. "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed the evil thoughts and fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, deeds of coveting and wickedness, as well as deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride and foolishness. All these evil things proceed from within and defile the man." (Mark 7:21-23)

No set of teachings can remove man's inner problem. Man-made doctrines only put a sugar coating over the real issues. Man is separated from God by sin — an active or passive attitude of rebellion toward God and His absolute principles. The guilt and penalty of this sin must be removed before man can ever hope to have a relationship with the living God. According to what God has stated in the Bible, the only just and legal payment for sin is death.

Two thousand years ago, God met this required penalty Himself through the death of Jesus Christ on the cross. Being God, Jesus could carry the death penalty for all humanity. He now offers "salvation" to all — not a utopian society, but a removal of the guilt and sin from each one of us, establishing a vital relationship between man and God. To come into this relationship, one must willfully submit to Him, asking His forgiveness for our rebellious attitude and putting ourselves under His rightful authority. Christ promises to come into our lives by His spirit, forgive us, and lead us in the most fulfilling and abundant life possible.

CARP, Moon, and the Unification Church offer a false hope to a dying world. Their maze of twisted ideologies may sound intriguing, but it will eventually lead to their destruction.

Don't be fooled by their approach. Don't get sucked in by their "Christian" vocabulary. The Bible states that "even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light" (2 Corinthians 11:14) — and so they are. Their teaching and "divine principle" is in no way divine but just one more cleverly disguised highway, lined with beautiful fresh flowers, that leads to Hell.
