Bearing down

Texas A&M pitcher Perry Swanson bears down Saturday as he pitches against the Kansas Jayhawks at Pat Olsen Field. Swanson, coming off of a year-and-a-half layoff due to arm problems, is 1-2 on the season so far. The Aggies, 16-7, split the doubleheader against Kansas and a twinbill against Sam Houston State Sunday.

Ags capture CS Relays

The Texas Aggies edged out the Baylor Bears to hold on to a first place finish in the university division of the 14th annual College Station Relays Saturday afternoon at Kyle Field.

Texas A&M, Baylor and Houston Baptist competed in the university division. A&M finished with 95 points, Baylor with 94 points and Houston Baptist with two points.

The Bears took most of the distance races, often placing 1-2-3, over the Ags.

In the 10,000-meter run the Bears wrapped up the top three places with Bacilio Garcia winning in a time of 32:00.50. Teammate Richard Woodall was second (32:02.70). Brett Winter was third (32:18.06).

Baylor's John Robinson won the 5,000-meter run edging out teammate Richard Woodall with a time of 14:48.0.

Baylor's 1,600-meter relay team (Bill Hartson, Bobby Burkhalter, Vance Vaughn and Zeke Jefferson) won that event with a time of 3:07.3. A&M finished at 3:08.1 for second place.

The Bear's 400 meter relay team (Brian Savage, Bruce Davis, Mike Fisher, Zeke Jefferson) edged out the Aggies (James Washington, Leslie Kerr, Mike Glaspie, Larry Kerr) with a time of 40.43. A&M finished at 40.86.

Senior Leslie Kerr won the 400 meter dash with 47.1 for A&M. Bill Hartson of Baylor was second at 47.6.

Baylor's Paul Montgomery won the 400 meter hurdles in 52.0. Rick Thomas of A&M finished second in 52.4.

The Aggies' James Washington beat Baylor's Zeke Jefferson to take the 200 meter dash in a time of 20.98. Jefferson finished at 21.03.

Baylor took the 100 meter dash with Bruce Davis' 10.26 finish. Washington finished second for A&M with a time of 10.34.

The Aggies swept the 110 meter hurdles with Billy Busch leading the way. Busch finished with a time of 13.91. Rick Thomas and Craig Moody finished second and third with times of 14.10 and 14.18, respectively.

Johnny Hector and Don Jones finished 1-2 in the long jump. Hector won with a jump of 24-11½.

The Ags also swept the pole vault with the trio of Randy Hall (17-0), Rob Montgomery (16-6) and Mike Mullins (15-6).

Texas A&M's Kevin McGinnis won the shot put with a throw of 57-6½. Teammates Robert Windsor and Mark Isenmann finished second and third.

Comroe won the 28 team high school division, edging out Austin Reagan. A&M Consolidated finished tied for third.

The Aggies will travel to McAllen Saturday to compete in the City of Palms Invitational track meet.

Softball team places third

The Texas A&M University women's softball team extended its season record to 16-3 Saturday, placing third in the Oklahoma Invitational Softball Tournament.

Thirty-two teams competed in the tourney with Missouri winning it, defeating Oklahoma for the title.

Texas A&M defeated Illinois State, 7-1, for third place behind the hitting of Carrie Austgen and Melody Pritchard. Austgen homered while Pritchard tripled to score three runs in the Aggie win. Lori Stoll was the winning pitcher, extending her record to 8-1.

The Aggies began the tournament with a 2-0 win over New Mexico State. They went on to defeat Oklahoma State, 2-1, before bowing to second-place finisher Oklahoma, 1-0.

In the New Mexico State win, Shan McDonald got the win, with An Army of some help at the plate from Pritchard and Mary Lou Youngblood. Pritchard collected a double and a triple in the win while Youngblood singled in a run.

The Aggies collected only two hits at the plate against Oklahoma State, one coming from a Rhonda Reese home run, which was good enough for the 2-1 victory. The Aggies will return to action Wednesday evening when they host Indiana in a doubleheader at Bee Creek Park. Gametime is 6 p.m.
