

Senate

At-Large Science Senator
DINA VILLARREAL

Interested in extending Q-drop deadline or requiring faculty to give exams before the deadline. Wants to improve faculty-student communications.

At-Large Science Senator
JASON WISCHMEYER

Interested in keeping Texas A&M University unique and in helping students maintain a voice in University decisions during periods of growth and change.

At-Large Veterinary Medicine Senator
DAVID KING

Wants to contribute time and effort to the University, intends to familiarize himself with office in order to be informed about any problems that exist.

At-Large Veterinary Medicine Senator
MARK A. VARA

Wants bill concerning extension of Q-drop deadline to include majoring in biomedical science. Was member of External Affairs Committee and Vet School Senator.

At-Large Veterinary Medicine Senator
DENISE K. WILLIAMS

Really enjoys working for people. Familiar with operations of student government and time the office takes. Wants greater recognition of vet school.

Sophomore Corps Senator
RICKY LYNN MOORE

Wants more involvement in the University by students who are not in the Corps of Cadets, has a 3.58 grade point ratio and is actively involved in the Corps.

Sophomore Corps Senator
BILL MONTGOMERY

Wants to deal with lecturers who are doing research, but have no genuine regard for their students, currently serving as freshman senator at-large.

Sophomore Corps Senator
ROGER C. DAVIS

Wants to solve the work load that slows the legislative process of the senate and says he will work for all students, currently a freshman senator at-large.

Junior Corps Senator
JEFF D. GREENWADE

Says feels major qualification is desire to work with University and students, would solve problems without sacrificing traditions, Student Government freshman aide.

Senior Corps Senator
SCOTT LAURIE

Wants to increase communication between student government and students, says will work to present constituents' ideas to the Senate, student services committee member.

Senior Corps Senator
LEE FLAGG

Wants to work through Academic Affairs Committee to get a quiz file for all students and extension of the Q-drop deadline, currently junior engineering senator.

Senior Corps Senator
GARY K. ZIEHE

Wants to deal with the lack of communication by talking to as many people as possible to get varied views, served as member of the Student Services Committee.

Aston-Dunn Senator
GEORGE BOOZALIS

Would be primarily concerned with new housing bills being brought up such as the 5th-year senior bill, has been senator and member of the dorm council.

Aston-Dunn Senator
KEN SALYER

Will work toward better communication between dorms and Student Government, is a member of the Bryan-College Station business community and the Dunn Hall Dorm Council.

Aston-Dunn Senator
DAVID SWARBRICK

Wants to find a feasible solution to the parking problem, says is a hard worker and is willing to learn quickly about new situations and ideas.

Crocker-Davis-Gary-Moses-Moore Senator
MICHAEL MADDRY

Wants to represent students better, views newsletters as one solution to this problem, has been in Student Government and says has understanding of procedures.

Crocker-Davis-Gary-Moses-Moore Senator
GEORGE CROWSON

Three semesters as resident advisor, says has first-hand look at student desires and problems, wants policy of openness and availability.

Haas-McFadden-Neeley-Hobby Senator
MELISSA COSPER

Wants to keep dorm residents informed of events through a monthly or bi-monthly newsletter, served as freshman aid and Coordinator of Freshman Aid.

Haas-McFadden-Neeley-Hobby Senator
DIANE BROWN

Wants to work on the parking situation and other important aspects of dorm life, has served on dorm council and likes to work with people.

Haas-McFadden-Neeley-Hobby Senator
KELLI KIESLING

Wants to help with dorm problems, has held previous leadership positions in student government and other organizations in high school.

Krueger-Mosher Senator
JANET FRANKS

Wants to get the ideas and viewpoints of residents across to the Senate, involved with Student Government for one year as freshman aide, chemical engineering major.

Krueger-Mosher Senator
KRISTY WRIGHT

Communicates well with people, says will be able to notify residents about happenings of Student Government, business-marketing major.

Krueger-Mosher Senator
KAREN CHARITA SKINNER

Wants to accurately represent and improve relations between the two dorms, held student government offices in high school.

Law-Puryear-Hart-Cain Senator
JOE NUSSBAUM

Suggests monthly Student Government newsletter to better inform students, member of the Wesley Foundation, the Student Y Polaris Leadership Society.

Law-Puryear-Hart-Cain Senator
NILES WESLEY HOLMES

Wants to make decisions in favor of on-campus students and solve problems of the constituency, willingness to work.

McInnis-Schumacher-Hotard-Walton Senator
JEFF C. SPEER

Serving as Student Government freshman aide, says will bring experience, open mind to office, says plans to discuss Senate matters with constituents.

McInnis-Schumacher-Hotard-Walton Senator
MARK A. STASNEY

Wants to insure that needs of Northgate dorms get response from Senate and increase student body input in student government by keeping them informed.

Spence-Briggs-Modular Senator
LAURA FURR

Experience as at-large education senator, will help meet goals of sidewalk connecting Spence and Briggs with new modulars and cutting down excess shrubs to eliminate rats.

Ward I Senator
ADALBERTO CALLEGOS

Involved in student government three years in high school, member of Phi Eta Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies, wants off-campus students to be more aware.

Ward I Senator
SHERRY TRASK

Wants to be involved in student government and encourage off-campus students to get involved so that they feel like a major part of the University.

Ward I Senator
BRAD GOODNER

Has a 3.8 GPR and wants to get more involved in the University system through student government, wants to help off-campus students get more involved.

Ward I Senator
DONNA ZIMMERMAN

Enjoys working for the University and with students, has been a freshman senator, off-campus senator and a member of the external affairs committee.

Ward I Senator
MARIO RIVERA

Hopes to get off-campus students more involved in University activities through his involvement in student government, has been a member of Off-Campus Aggies.

Ward I Senator
CLIFFORD ZWAHLER

Wants to become actively involved in Student Government and help solve any problems facing the Student Government, was on the senate four years in high school.

Ward II Senator
PAT PEARSON

Will attempt to solve problem of bus schedules and change the Silver Taps policy, has been student senator and has two years experience in parliamentary procedure.

Ward II Senator
ROLAND FLANAGAN

Wants to solve the problem of communication so other work will be easier to complete, major qualification is his desire to fulfill the job of senator.

Ward III Senator
ADREN PILGER

Wants to represent the views of students in the ward, has executive committee, parliamentary and one year of senate experience.

Ward IV Senator
CHARLIE STEGEMOELLER

Wants to work on the overcrowding problem at Northgate and the biking problem on campus, served as a freshman aide and member of the Student Services Committee.

Ward IV Senator
Milt Prewitt

Wants to fill the great communication gap between senators and their constituents, feels he has the desire and capability of good communication to serve effectively.

Ward IV Senator
EDDIE KING

Will attempt to extend the shuttle bus routes further out into Ward IV, held offices in Future Farmers of America in high school and is currently an officer in A&M's FFA.

Ward IV Senator
SHANNON O'FARRELL

Wants to support off-campus issues, served as a freshman aide, member of the Academic Affairs and Aggie Bucks committees and currently aide to Parent's Day committee.

Ward IV Senator
ELLEN PIFER

Wants off-campus students to receive the recognition they deserve as a majority of the student body, served as a freshman aide and member of the Finance Committee.

Questionnaires containing political views and biographical information for these candidates for student senator were not available. These senators are listed only by name and the position for which they are running.

Fred Billings	Ward I Senator
Jeff Anthony	Ward II Senator
Patricia Linck	Ward II Senator
John W. Porter	Ward II Senator
William Beard	Ward II Senator
Michael Hafner	Ward II Senator
Cody Whitten	Ward IV Senator
Charles R. Brown II	Ward IV Senator
Dan Kahler	Junior Engineering Senator
Tony Marshall	Senior Engineering Senator
A. Lee Wade	Graduate Engineering Senator
Kirk Esmond	Junior Agriculture Senator
Dale Langley	Senior Agriculture Senator
Curtis Stewart	At-Large Agriculture Senator
David Sergi	At-Large Agriculture Senator
Debby Rutledge	At-Large Business Senator
Bobby Vaughn	At-Large Vet Medicine Senator

Get out and vote