Penberthy Celebration 1981

"Penny" Penberthy instructs all participants to "have a good time."

Tom's Bar-B-Que captured the Men's Championship.

From the opening pitch by the "Father of A&M Intramurals", Walter Penberthy, through the special events and winding up approximately 1 a.m. Thursday morning (4/2) with a rain-delayed Men's final, the Second Annual Penberthy Celebration of Sports proved to be a successful event.

The Celebration was highlighted by a continuous play Softball Tournament, a Home Run Hitting Contest, a Flickerball Accuracy Competition, and the Redman Tobacco Spitting Contest.

The Softball Tournament saw all three winners emerge from the double elimination competition without a loss. Tom's Bar-B-Que won the Men's Division with a victory over the DWE's. The Co-Rec crown went to the Sportsman's Den as they defeated Half-Fast in the final.

In Women's action, the Rutgers topped the Routers to capture the title. These same two teams faced each other in the opening game of Women's action. Both Sportsman's Den and the Rutgers started the tournament off the hard way, with opening games at 3:10 and 4:10 Saturday morning, respectively.

The only real damper of the tourney came one hour before the scheduled finish on Sunday morning as a downpour caused the Men's final to be called and rescheduled for Wednesday at midnight.

In the special events, George Myrich successfully defended his Redman Tobacco Spitting distance title while also capturing the accuracy event as well. His winning distance of 17'3" was eight inches short of his winning mark last year.

Mike Goodenough, Richard Majewski, and Kim Eubanks tied for first in the Home Run Hitting Contest. Each contestant tallied three homers out of five hits. Jenneye Shugar won the Women's side of the event.

The Flickerball Accuracy Throw was won by T. J. Harmon in the Women's Division and Bruce Smith in the Men's version.

The Intramural-Recreational Sports Department would like to thank all the individuals and teams for braving the threatening weather and coming out and taking part in the Second Annual Celebration. All individuals involved, winners and losers, emerged from the tournament having a good time. And after all, "Have a good time" is exactly what Mr. Penberthy directed everyone to do in his opening comments.

The first pitch...

Then came the rains.

IM Game Plan

ENTRIES OPEN: Interested canoers, the Intramural and Recreational Sports Departments Canoe Race entries opens today (April 6). The deadline for sign-ups is April 14 and their will be two divisions, aluminum and fiberglass. Participants must furnish their own equipment and need to stop by the IM office at 159 East Kyle for further information.

ENTRIES CLOSE: Entries for Golf Doubles and Super Stars close tomorrow (Tuesday, April 7). Their is still time to sign up so hurry over to 159 East Kyle and participate! Remember, if you are interested in Super Stars, there is a mandatory meeting Tuesday in 274 East Kyle at 6:30.

GOLF QUALIFYING: Golfers remember your qualifying rounds are this weekend. Class A can qualify on Saturday, April 11 at 9:30 a.m. and on Sunday, April 12 at 7:30 a.m. or noon. Class B can qualify on April 12 also at 7:30 and noon, while Class C participants can qualify on Saturday, April 11 at 1:30 p.m.

IM LOGO CONTEST: Due to the high quality of the entries in the IM Logo Contest, the judges are having a difficult time in determining a winner. Therefore, the results will not be released today, as was previously expected, but rather next week in the McDonald's Intramural Highlights. We would like to thank all those who did enter the contest and hope that this one week delay will not inconvenience anyone.

PLAY BEGINS: Teams are reminded that both Handball Doubles and Pickle Ball Doubles begin play tonight. Teams are urged to check their schedules if they have not already done so!

Softball action during the wee hours of morning.

A runner is safe at first.

Outdoor Pool Open

Sun worshipers and swimmers alike, rejoice! The Wofford Cain Pool (outdoor) is open for spring hours. The pool will be open for recreational swimming (as well as competitive sunbathing) for the remainder of the spring semester according to the following schedule:

Mon.-Fri. Noon-1:30 p.m. & 3:30 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
Sat. & Sun. 1:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

To gain entrance into the pool, all students must show a valid student I.D. card. Faculty, staff, and families of students, faculty, or staff must purchase a Recreation I.D. card with swimming privileges. This validation may be purchased per semester or for the rest of the academic year.

The Recreation I.D. may be purchased in the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office in room 159 East Kyle.

Golf Doubles Reminder

This spring the Intramural Golf Doubles Tournament will offer two styles of competition. All classes will compete in formats that are different from previous years.

Classes A & B will both compete in a modified best ball tournament. Each person must account for at least 6 of the eighteen holes per round, with no hole being counted twice.

Class A golfers may sign up to play Saturday, April 11 at 9:30 a.m. or Sunday, April 12 at either 7:30 a.m. or noon. Class B golfers may sign up for Sunday times only. Individuals qualifying for the finals will play an additional 18 holes at a time to be determined. Men's, Women's, and Co-Rec competition will be available in both Classes A & B.

Class C golfers will be competing in a Florida Scramble competition. Each player will tee off, the best shot will be selected and

Basketball Playoffs & Slam Dunk Finals

All-University Basketball Playoffs will soon be coming to an end and the competition in each class is becoming more intense daily.

Thursday, April 16 will be the date for all finals except Women's Class C action which will be decided at 10:10 p.m. on Sunday, April 5.

Co-Rec B & C finals will be contested on Thursday, April 16 at 7 p.m. on courts 6 & 7, respectively. Women's B and Men's C action will take over at 8 p.m. on courts 6 & 7 also. The Men's B title will be determined on court 6 at 9 p.m. the same evening.

Class A finals as well as the Women's Super League will be contested on the Main Floor of G. Rollie White. Co-Rec action will start at 6 p.m., followed by Women's play at 7 p.m., Men at 8 p.m., and ultimately the Women's Super League at 9 p.m.

The finals of the Intramural Slam Dunk Contest will be contested between the Class A Women's and Men's contests on Thursday, April 16. The finalists in this event are Lee Kleb, Mark Drummond, James Parker, Scott Roberson, and James Vorlop.

All-University Racquetball Champs

In the beginning there were 931 hopefuls. In the end there were only six, six All-University Racquetball Champions.

Five of the six champs were determined last Wednesday evening, with the sixth determined early Saturday morning.

In the Class A Men's Final, Mike Hare added the Singles crown to the Doubles championship he won last fall. Hare defeated Dorm champ Cameron Walker of Dunn to cop the title. Hare and Walker topped Fish champ Jeff Crofton (B-2) and Corps champ Gus Fernandez (D-1) in the semi-finals, respectively.

Women's Class A action saw Dorm champ Kathleen Fairchild of Keathley defeat Independent champ Terri King. Fairchild topped fellow Keathley competitor Gale Seitz in the semis, while King won out over Jennifer Risch.

In the Women's Class B finals, Linda Klar defeated Page Curtis of Krueger to claim the title. Curtis topped Ruth Schmidt of Mosher while Klar was victorious over Leisa Bockenhaber to gain berths in the finals.

Men's Class C play wound up with Steve Folk defeating Gabriel Bustamante to emerge as the C champ. Folk topped Greg Estes in the semi-finals while Bustamante was the winner over Dennis Lay.

The Women's Class C champion was unavailable at press time, but the winner will be the victor of a match between Kirsten Donson and Anne Jenkins. Jenkins topped Tammy Trace to gain her berth while Donson defeated Leslie Austin.

The IM-REC SPORTS DEPARTMENT congratulates these winners as well as the other 925 participants in the Racquetball Singles Tournament.

Mike Hare captured the All-University Racquetball Singles title last week. His effort earns him our McDonald's® "Be Our Guest" award this week. Mike can pick up his B.O.G. card in the Intramural Office.
