TV columns blacked out

Listings for television programs this week are incomplete. Focus' supplier in New York sent the pre-printed listings normally in the magazine, but they never arrived in College Station.

We are including listings for Thursday, Friday, Saturday and daytime programs. The information about movies and specials is accurate. We apologize for any inconvenience and hope to be able to publish full listings next week.

Erotic film dispute ends in laughter

On-screen sex is okay ... as long as it's funny. That seems to be the theory behind a decision at Northern Illinois University to replace a highly controversial Erotic Week film program with a Comedy Week program that includes one X-rated film.

The X-rating of the Erotic Week films drew state-wide attention. The state Board of Regents and the Legislature considered placing a ban on X-rated films at state-supported schools, and NIU president William Monat decided to ban Erotic Week.

The administrators apparently don't object to the Comedy Week replacement, even though one of the films scheduled is the X-rated comedy "Debbie Does Dallas."
