Maroon outlasts White, 6-0

By RITCHIE PRIDDY

In probably what can be described from a fan's viewpoint as a somewhat less than exciting game, the Maroon team, paced by two field goals by sophomore Alan Smith, outlasted the White team, 6-0, in the annual Maroon-White spring game Saturday night at Kyle Field.

Boring from a fan's standpoint does not necessarily mean boring from a coach's standpoint, though. The game was expected to be controlled by the offense. After all, they had been handling the defense with ease at times during the spring.

That, however, was not the case as it turned out to be a defensive game.

"It was a great defensive game. The offense has dominated the defense all spring long and tonight the defense dominated the offense," head football coach Tom Wilson said. "I'm sure the fans must have thought we had no offense, but the offense looked very good."

Wilson, dividing his team evenly for the game, let his assistant coaches run the show while he was in the press box.

Statistically, the Maroon team finished far ahead of the White, racking up 338 total yards vs 103 for the White.

Gary Kubiak and Johnny Hector led the Maroon, which rolled up 168 yards passing and 170 rushing. Kubiak completed 12 of 27 passes for 158 yards while Hector provided the bulk of the running with 84 yards on 12 carries.

Just three plays later, after two incomplete passes from Kubiak, Stuard and Smith lined up again for another field goal attempt, this one from 20 yards out with just 8 seconds left.

Another bad snap left Stuard holding the ball and running for his life. This time he lofted a 12-yard pass to running back David Hill for another first down at the White three as time ran out.

After three scoreless quarters the Maroon broke the ice with a 55-yard field goal from the bare-foot toe of Alan Smith with 10:56 left in the contest.

On its next possession, the Maroon marched 41 yards in 11 plays to the White 8-yard line before the drive stalled. Smith was called on again, this time to boot a 25-yard field goal to cap the game's scoring with 3:12 remaining in the contest.

Wilson was surprised with the way both defenses were handling the offenses: "I really am surprised (with the defense) because the offense has looked great all spring. Some inconsistencies have shown up tonight. But, I'm pleased with the offense as far as next fall goes."

Wilson didn't want to show too much to visiting scouts so he held the offenses back throughout the contest, much to the fans' disappointment.

"I was, perhaps, a little unfair to the offense. But, with some scouts in the crowd, we didn't want to show too much," Wilson said.

Wilson was "pretty well pleased" with the defense, pointing out the improving play of defensive end Robert Stoss and defensive tackles Keith Guthrie, Kermit Foster and Fred Caldwell.

"Overall, we are a much more solid football team — position by position — than we have been in past years," Wilson said summarizing the spring.

Eleven players missed the spring finale due to injuries. Wide receiver Billy Cannon was involved in baseball. All twelve are expected to be back in the fall.

Quarterback Gary Kubiak eyes his upfield blocking as he rolls around left end during Saturday's Maroon-White game. Kubiak and running back Johnny Hector led the Maroon team as it held on to a 6-0 victory over White team. The game's only scoring came from two field goals from Alan Smith. The game concluded spring practice for the Aggies.

WHAT IS A PARALEGAL?

A paralegal is a person with one of the most exciting new careers going!

A paralegal is a lawyer's assistant who is able to do many tasks traditionally done by attorneys. Not a clerical or secretarial role, the paralegal is a new legal specialty with excellent job opportunities in law firms, corporate legal departments, and banks.

Three months of intensive training in courses taught by law professors and lawyers can give you the skills to interview witnesses, conduct legal research, prepare pleadings, draft transaction documents, and prepare cases for trial under the supervision of an attorney.

The Basic Legal Assistant Course begins June 1, 1981 and September 14, 1981. A representative will be on campus on Monday, April 13, 1981 at the Career Planning and Placement Center. Call 845-6551 to schedule an individual or group interview.

Gervin leads Spurs to win holds off Rockets 114-119

United Press International

HOUSTON — George Gervin scored 33 points and the San Antonio Spurs survived a last-second dunk attempt by Houston's Robert Reid Sunday to edge the Rockets, 114-112, and pull even in their Western Conference semi-final series at 2-2.

The Spurs regained the home court advantage in the best-of-seven series, but it took Mark Olberding's 12-foot baseline shot with 40 seconds remaining to hold off a frantic Houston rally in the final four minutes.

Gervin, called for a charging violation with 10 seconds left, allowed Houston a final chance for a tying basket. But Reid, who led his team with 33 points, drove the baseline only to miss a would-be dunk shot that caromed off the side of the rim at the buzzer.

Rockets' center Moses Malone, the dominant player in the series through the first three games, was limited to 17 points and nine rebounds by the Spurs' "Bruise Brothers" defense featuring Olberding, Paul Griffin and Dave Corzine.

Spurs guard James Silas, who was benched in Friday night's win by Houston, had his best game of the series with 21 points. But his poor ball handling in the final minutes allowed the Rockets' to mount their final rally.

San Antonio led, 108-97, with four minutes left. Then Rockets' guard Calvin Murphy scored two quick baskets, one after a steal from Silas, to get Houston going.

Houston closed its deficit to within two on Mike Dunleavy's three-point goal before Olberding's jump shot with 40 seconds left. Malone, who had scored 40 points in a game earlier, "E" cushion. Malone then scored 17 points, setting up Gervin's charging foul and Reid's dunk attempt.

Olberding, who had a career-high 34 points in the second game of the series, scored 21 points in the final eight minutes and led the Spurs to protect their lead in the last minutes of the game.

The series returns to San Antonio for Game 5 Tuesday night. Houston comes back to Houston Wednesday night. If the series goes a seventh game it will close in San Antonio next Friday night.

Silas gave his team an offensive lift in the first three quarters, being criticized by teammates for missing Saturday's practice session. The San Antonio guard's "personal problems" caused him to miss the workout. In the three games Silas had scored 27 points.
