Jury indicts state convict in slayings

HUNTSVILLE — A Walker County grand jury Thursday indicted Texas prison inmate Eroy Edward Brown on two capital murder charges in the April 4 slayings of two prison officials.

The indictment charges Brown, a trusty at the time, shot Ellis Unit farm manager Billy Max Moore and drowned Warden Wallace M. Pack in a water-filled ditch.

Prison officials said Moore found Brown smoking marijuana in a prison farm barn and tried to return him to his cell.

Investigators said the confrontation occurred when Moore was driving Brown back to a cell, met Pack on the way and left his vehicle to talk. Brown allegedly grabbed a gun and started shooting.

Authorities say Brown got control of Pack's gun, fired shots that fatally wounded Moore in the head, struck Pack in the hand and arm and Brown in the foot.

Brown had claimed he was defending himself against abuse by prison officials. Prison officials said they later locked him in a cell nude with a mattress bed to prevent suicide.

Weapons tests, performed by the FBI, showed that a bullet removed from Moore's head was fired from a .38 caliber revolver owned by Pack, prosecutor Mark Ward said.

Investigators have not determined whether Brown got Pack's gun from the glove box of the warden's car or if Pack had the gun.

No fingerprints were found on the gun, which was discovered four hours after the slayings when investigators dammed Turkey creek, where Pack was allegedly drowned by Brown.
