Aggies take two of three games from Red Raiders

By FRANK L. CHRISTLIEB

The Texas A&M baseball team split a double header with the Texas Tech Red Raiders Monday at Lubbock, winning the first game 4-2 and losing the second game 7-6 when Tech scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning.

The split brings the Aggies to 25-15-1 for the season and 5-9-1 in the SWC, and puts them in fourth place behind Texas, Arkansas, Rice, Houston and TCU. The Red Raiders are 25-17 and 5-10, and are tied with Baylor for seventh place in the SWC.

The Aggies won Sunday's game with the Red Raiders 6-5, giving them two wins in three games for the Lubbock trip. The successful trip puts the Aggies back into contention for one of three undecided SWC post-season tournament berths. Texas, at 13-2, is far ahead of the other teams in the conference and virtually has the top spot clinched.

The Aggies' David Flores, 5-3, won Monday's first game, with Perry Swanson earning his second save in two games. Tim Boyes had two of the Aggies' nine hits with two doubles in three trips to the plate.

In the second game, two-run homers by Boyes and Grant Pries gave the Ags a 4-2 lead through seven innings. The two homers were the Aggies' only hits until the eighth inning, when they scored two more runs on three hits, including a two-run double by Joey Szekely.

With a 6-2 lead at this point, it seemed the Aggies were on their way to a double header sweep. However, the Red Raiders scored two unearned runs in their half of the eighth and the three runs in the ninth to win the game.

Netters win in weekend tennis play

By RICK STOLLE

Gearing up for the AIAW Division I tournament in Houston, the Texas A&M women's tennis team split two weekend matches.

The Ags remain in sixth place with a 4-6 record as they prepare to leave for the Individual State tournament that will be held at the University of Houston April 23-25.

There will be 11 teams competing in the tourney. Trinity is in first place, with Texas, TCU, Rice, North Texas State, A&M, UT-Permian Basin, SMU, Lamar, Tech and Houston following.

The Ags defeated the Texas Tech Red Raiders Friday 6-3 to gain a little momentum going into a Saturday match with the University of Texas.

Unfortunately, the Ags did not do as well as they would have liked in Austin in losing 8-1.

Coach Jan Cannon said the team was disappointed with the showing in Austin. She said she believed they should have done much better.

Texas had scheduled Tech at 8:30 Saturday morning and Cannon said the match should have tired the Longhorns but seemed to have no effect.

Only Lilianna Fernandez was able to take a victory as she defeated Kerstin McKeen 7-5, 6-3.

Against Tech, Fernandez defeated Regina Revello 6-3, 6-1; Amy Closs beat Sue Smith 6-0, 6-1; Maylyn Hooton defeated Nancy McGrath 6-1, 7-5 and Sonja Hutcherson beat Joan Waltki 6-0, 6-2.

In doubles, Closs-Laura Hanna defeated Smith-Stringer 6-1, 6-3 and Fernandez-Judy Willard beat McGrath-Waltki 6-0, 6-2.

All three losses came in three set matches.

The Ags will leave Thursday morning for Houston.
