Longhorn recruits overcharge

AUSTIN — Seven basketball players being recruited by the University of Texas ran up $1,267.40 in charges for clothing and souvenirs at the hotel where they stayed during a visit to the campus.

Texas officials said the Marriott Hotel billed the school only for the recruits' rooms and room tax, and sent the bills for sportswear, cowboy hats and souvenirs to the recruits.

"I'm kind of shocked by all of this," said Barry Dowd, assistant basketball coach. Dowd said the hotel has asked the university's help in collecting from the recruits, and one of the recruits — Michael Kennedy of Kingston College in Jamaica — already has paid back the extra charges he ran up during his visit.

Robert Hughes Jr. of Fort Worth Dunbar ran up the most charges, $525.80 on four receipts from hotel shops. Hughes already has signed a letter of intent to play for the Longhorns.

His father, coach at Dunbar High, said he was "extremely disgusted" with his son.

"I don't know who he thought he was charging those things, but I do know who's going to have to pay for it. I also know who is going to pay me back with his first paycheck this summer, or UT is going to be minus a player after I break both of his legs."

Sugar Ray to fight Kalule

HOUSTON — World Boxing Council welterweight champ Sugar Ray Leonard will take on World Boxing Association junior middleweight champ Ayub Kalule in a title match in the Astrodome June 25.

Officials announced the bout Monday. Leonard, a trim 147 pounds, has also scheduled a September title fight against WBA welterweight champion Thomas Hearns, he said. That fight will either be in Houston, New Orleans, Phoenix or Las Vegas.

If Leonard wins over Kalule in the Dome and Hearns three months later, he will be the first man to hold three championships since Henry Armstrong in 1930.

Astros win sixth, 5-4

ATLANTA — Jose Cruz singled and Craig Reynolds from third base in the ninth inning Wednesday night to give the Houston Astros a 5-4 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

Trailing 4-1 in the eighth, the Braves tied the score on a two-run homer by Dale Murphy and an RBI single by Bruce Benedict.

The Astros took a 4-1 lead in the seventh on a two-run homer by Walling and a solo shot from Reynolds. Houston scored an unearned run in the first when Bob Wall loaded the bases with walks and shortstop Rafael Ramirez booted Art Howe's grounder, allowing Reynolds to score.

The Braves got the run back in the third when Ed Miller led off with a single, stole second, went to third on a pop foul and scored on a sacrifice fly by Claudell Washington.

Rangers shutout Sox for series sweep

ARLINGTON — Danny Darwin allowed one hit — a bloop single to Rick Miller leading off the fifth inning Wednesday night — to give the Texas Rangers three straight shutouts for the first time in their 10-year history, a 5-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Texas shut out Boston in the first two games of the series, 10-0 and 8-0, and their third game extended the Red Sox scoreless string to 28 innings. It was the first time in seven years the Red Sox had been shut out three times in a row. Darwin, 2-2, walked five and struck out seven.

The Rangers staked Darwin to a 3-0 lead in the first on a bases-loaded, two-out double by John Grubb. Al Oliver reached on a force play but John Tudor, 1-1, walked Buddy Bell and hit Billy Sample with a pitch to load the bases. Grubb hit a sinking liner to center that eluded the diving Jim Rice and scored three runs.

Oliver's two-run homer in the eighth accounted for the Rangers' other runs. Darwin had given up 12 earned runs in his first 15 innings of work this season.
