Astros lose, 3-2 1981 All-SWC baseball team

United Press International
HOUSTON — Tom Herr's suicide squeeze in the 10th inning scored Gene Tenace from third base and lifted the St. Louis Cardinals to a 3-2 victory over the Houston Astros Tuesday night.

Tenace opened the 10th with a double off loser Joe Sambito, 1-2. Ken Oberkell sacrificed Tenace to third and Tenace scored when Sambito fielded Herr's bunt and his throw towards the plate was late.

Cardinals' reliever Bruce Sutter, 1-1, got the victory by pitching two innings and allowing two hits and no runs. Jim Kaat earned his second save by pitching the final inning.

St. Louis tied the game 2-2 in the eighth. Oberkell singled, stole second base after two were out and came home on Garry Templeton's single to right.

Jose Cruz, who hit only 11 homers last season, slammed his seventh of 1981 in the fourth inning, driving in two runs and giving Houston a 2-1 lead. Cruz hit pitcher Bob Forsch's 3-0 delivery over the rightfield fence after Cesar Cedeno singled with two out.

Sixto Lezcano's fourth-inning sacrifice fly drove in the first run of the game and broke Houston starter Bob Knepper's string of 12 1/2 innings of scoreless pitching.

KANSAS CITY — Willie Wilson singled in Dan Garcia from second base with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning Tuesday night to lift the Kansas City Royals to a 3-2 victory over the Texas Rangers.

Amos Otis led off the ninth with a double to right off Jon Matlack, 1-3, and took third on a single by Lee May. Steve Comer came on and walked Willie Aikens to load the bases and Frank White followed with a sacrifice fly to tie it 2-2. John Henry Johnson relieved

HOUSTON — Pitcher Matt Williams and coach David Hall of Rice, the two who led the Owls to their first post season tournament berth ever, were voted player and coach of the year in balloting for United Press International's 1981 All-Southwest Conference team.

Arkansas' sophomore designated hitter Billy Dees — who led the league in hitting — was voted newcomer of the year on the UPI team, announced Tuesday.

Williams and Dees were two of six unanimous selections. The others who drew the maximum of seven votes from the conference's sports information directors were Houston outfielder Mark Lavespere, Arkansas pitcher Scott Tabor and two Texas players, shortstop Spike Owen and pitcher Tony Arnold.

The voters did not cast ballots for their own players.

Basketball signees make for happy coach

By RITCHIE PRIDDY
Sports Editor

Head women's basketball coach Cheri Rapp concluded her recruiting season last week with seven signatures on letters of intent.

Rapp's latest signees include Jenni Edgar, a 5-8 guard from Dallas Bryan Adams, and Lynette Joiner, a 5-8 forward junior college transfer from South Plains Jr. College in Levelland.

Edgar was a four-year all-district player. She averaged 22 points and seven rebounds per game and was named to the all-tournament team in every tournament she played in.

"Jenni has a lot of natural athletic ability. She's a real smooth player," Rapp said.

Rapp plans to use her at a point guard position.

Joiner was named Most Valuable Player for South Plains, averaging 18 points and nine rebounds per game.

She was all-conference, all-region and was selected to play in the regional all-star game.

"She was one of the better shooters in the conference. She's a good outside shooter with a lot of experience. The defense is really going to have to respect her outside shooting," Rapp said.

Rapp said that all of the signees had really wanted to attend Texas A&M and that all would fit in with the University and in her program real well.

She said each would have to make a big adjustment coming from their high schools or junior colleges but she felt confident that each could handle the transition with ease.

Women basketball recruits:
Post: Janet Duckham, 6-0; Kelli Harned, 6-3; Ann Trinka, 6-2 1/2;
Forward: Michell Tatum, 6-2 1/2, Lynette Joiner, 5-8
Guard: Romy Gandy, 5-6; Jenni Edgar, 5-8
