 thought brings a tear to my eye.)
 — She will never have the satisfaction of organizing a garage sale.
 — Diana will never know the luxury of the silky touch of polyester.
 The poor girl is to be pitied. All that attention and all those servants — one dusting, one making beds, one combing hair, one pressing the chosen dress for the day — would be a trial and a tribulation in life.

Wait. Who am I kidding? I'd love all that attention. I'd love all those servants (especially the one with the hairbrush.) I would have loved to have been in that beautiful silk designer dress in London instead of in my dreary maroon robe dozing on my dreary couch at 4 a.m. I'd love to be giving up the atrocious list of things Princess Diana is giving up.
 But then, there's always Andrew.

Posters for museum and gallery exhibitions are being featured in a showing by the Arts Council of Brazos Valley at the Brazos Center. The 30 posters, on loan from the Waco Art Center, include works by Andy Warhol, Roy Lichtenstein, Willem de Koonig, Saul Steinberg and Robert Rauschenberg. The exhibition is free and open to the public from 9-5 p.m. and will be on display through the end of September.

 This Sunday, the Arts Council is co-sponsoring another concert from the Summer Concert Series.
 The Houston Jazz Society will play Big Band music made famous by Harry James and Glen Miller, and contemporary jazz music by Maynard Ferguson and Chuck Mangione, starting at 7 p.m.

 Oaks Park is the place, and Arts Council members urge the audience to bring a picnic dinner and dine under the trees while the music is on.
 The free concert series is also sponsored by the City of College Station and the Musician's Performance Trust Fund.

THIS WEEK

Movies

Check theatres for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater
846-6512

Victory: Sylvester Stallone, Michael Caine and Pele star in a film about winning at soccer. Pele may not be known for his acting, but he certainly can bop a soccer ball. Rated R.

Manor East
823-8300

The Empire Strikes Back: The second saga in the Star Wars series returns for a repeat engagement. Actually, it's just a spacey western, but the scenery is fantastic, and Yoda is just so clever. Rated PG.

Raiders of the Lost Ark: A collaboration of Steven "Jaws" Spielberg and George "Star Wars" Lucas. Harrison Ford stars as a mercenary-adventurer-archaeologist in competition with Nazis searching for the lost tablets from the ark of the covenant. Features thousands of squirming snakes, poisonous darts and tarantulas. Rated PG.

The Fox and the Hound: The 20th classic animation film from Walt Disney Studios, this is the story of a puppy and a fox who don't know they are supposed to be enemies. Also featured is an animated short film highlighting 60 years of Mickey Mouse. Rated G.

Plitt Cinema I&II
846-6714

Zorro, the Gay Blade: George Hamilton stars in a dual role as the dashing Zorro and his prancing brother. Fashion fans will certainly love the clothes ... Rated R.

Stripes: Bill Murray stars in this summer's male version of "Private Benjamin." Murray forms his own army brigade, teaching them everything he knows. Obviously, that kind of training could and almost does cause World War III. Let's hope we all die laughing. Rated R.

Dawn of the Dead: Yum-yum. Fresh meat. In living (and dying) color. Friday and Saturday at midnight.

The Grove
845-2916

All movies start at 8:45 unless otherwise indicated.

Watership Down: The trials and tribulations of a group of rabbits trying to find a new home. It's actually not a kiddie feature; you'll have to go see it to find out. Animated. Thursday night.

The Deerhunter: The gory story of friends torn apart by the Vietnam war. Stars Robert DeNiro and Meryl Streep. This film won an Academy Award for the best movie and Christopher Walken won an oscar for best supporting actor. Friday night.

Young Frankenstein: Mel Brooks' comedy about the famous monster's early days. Stars Gene Wilder, Marty Feldman, Madeline Kahn, Peter Boyle and Cloris Leachman. One of Brooks' two best films. Friday at midnight.

Blues Brothers: They're on a mission ... the music helps save this car crash epic starring John Belushi and Dan Aykroyd. One million was spent on the car chase scene alone. Saturday night.

A Little Romance: Two children in Vienna fall in love under the watchful eyes of a friend played by Laurence Olivier. Also stars Sally Kellerman. Sunday night.

The Buddy Holly Story: The story of the rocker whose classic "Peggy Sue" is one of the great songs of the 50s. Stars Gary Bussey and Don Stroud. Rock band Albatross will play in the Grove from 7:30 till 8:30 before the movie. Monday night.

An Unmarried Woman: Stara Jill Clayburgh and Alan Bates. Clayburgh was nominated for best actress for her portrayal of a woman coping with divorce. Tuesday night.

To Have and to Have Not: Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall star in this wonderful, messy Hollywood romance. Bacall teaches Bogart how to whistle and how to do a few other things. Wednesday night.
