Demos fighting for control

Districting battle continues

United Press International
AUSTIN — Liberal Democrats who narrowly lost attempts during committee deliberations to give a congressional redistricting bill more Democratic dominance have pledged to continue the fight before the full House.

Rep. Craig Washington, D-Houston, said Tuesday he and at least four other members of the House Committee on Regions, Compacts and Districts would present a minority report to the House. The full House was expected to begin debate on the congressional reapportionment plan at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

"I think our plan is truly reflective of the committee and the House," Washington said. Washington and Reps. Hugo Berlanga, D-Corpus Christi, and Paul Ragsdale, D-Dallas, lost narrow attempts to amend the plan by the committee chairman, Rep. Tim Von Dohlen, D-Coliadi.

Von Dohlen stalled committee action on his plan for three days last week when it appeared that Ragsdale had the necessary 10 votes for committee approval of his own plan, which favored Democrats. During the weekend Von Dohlen reworked his plan and won approval 14-5 on Monday for the proposal that would allow Republicans to gain two of three new districts, and possibly defeat at least one incumbent Democrat, Rep. Jim Mattox of Dallas.

Washington, angered with Von Dohlen for manner in which he handled the committee deliberations, offered an amendment to separate Reps. Bill Patman, D-Texas, and Ron Paul, R-Texas. He lost 10-9 on an amendment taking Brazoria County of Patman's district and freeing Paul to run in his own district.

"I got nine votes and I didn't even lobby. I just worked a few (population) numbers and I got nine votes. I could have gotten 12 votes if I had lobbied," Washington said.

He said the minority report would be essentially the same bill the Senate has already approved, but with a few changes for Dallas County, South Texas and the district man and Paul. If the minority report Washington said he and his supporters offer the same amendments that were defeated by the committee.

"I've got both methods prepared," Berlanga, who fought for a plan that not split Nueces County despite Von Dohlen's insistence that Corpus Christi be split along ethnic lines, said he is still dissatisfied with Von Dohlen's plan.

He said that although Hispanics in Texas and blacks in Dallas will probably support their own districts, Democrats must keep Republicans from making gains in 1982.

"We've got to convince the conservative Democrats that they are in danger," he said. "The minorities are not in danger (Republicans) don't want to upset an election year. They know how we pull the Democratic lever."

Today's almanac

Today is Thursday, July 30, the 211th day of 1981 with 154 days remaining.

The moon is new.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Leo.

Automobile pioneer Henry Ford was born July 30, 1863.

On this date in history:

In 1937, the American Federation of Radio Artists was organized as a unit of the AFL.

In 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed a bill creating a female branch of the U.S. Navy. The women sailors, not assigned combat duty, were called "WAVES."

In 1971, Apollo 15 astronauts David Scott and James Irwin landed on the moon for U.S. lunar exploration.

In 1974, the House Judiciary Committee, by a 21-17 vote, approved a third article of impeachment against President Richard Nixon, charging him with ignoring congressional subpoenas.

A thought for the day: British statesman John Morley said, "I have not converted a man because you have silenced him."
