Brazos Savings now offers three savings certificates: 26 week and 2½-year Money Market certificates and “Jumbo” certificates. No one can pay you more (but many financial institutions pay less).

Rates for each are fixed for the term of the certificate. All are automatically renewable. Rates are established for new certificates weekly (in the case of the 26-week maturity date), twice monthly (in the case of the 2½-year maturity date) and daily (in the case of the “Jumbo” certificates). Federal regulations prohibit compounding interest on the 26-week certificate.

There is no need to take your savings out of town to earn maximum rates. For 60 years and more, Brazos Savings has paid savers the maximum rates permitted by law. We always will.

SWC names cut in latest NFL roster cutdown

United Press International
Following the Tuesday cut-down in NFL training camps, Bill Bergey's name remained on the Philadelphia Eagles' roster. Sort of.

With teams having to trim their rosters to 60 players, Bergey was placed on the 4-week injured reserve list by Coach Dick Vermeil to salvage the veteran linebacker's career. Bergey is trying to come back from a bum knee, but the situation is not encouraging.

“He's just not physically ready to play football yet,” said Vermeil. “By putting him on the four-week injured reserve list now, it gives him time. I hope, to work his way back to where he is physically able to play well.”

On injured reserve, Bergey will miss the first four weeks of the regular season, then must clear waivers before he can be reactivated.

A number of other Eagles were not as fortunate, however. The team waived 10 players, including fullback Mike Hogan, wide receiver Luther Blue and quarterback Steve Ensinger.

Hogan started for the Eagles until he was cut in 1979 in the wake of drug charges that were eventually dropped. The team resigned him last year.

In other news, All-Pro tight end

Russ Francis announced his retirement last month, but the New England Patriots officially placed him on the reserve — did not report list. This gives the Patriots first claim if Francis decides to return to the NFL. The Patriots also traded linebacker Ray Costic, who missed the 1980 season with a knee injury, to New Orleans for a draft choice. Among those cut were quarterbacks Brian Buckley of Harvard and Dave Rader of Tulsa.

The Atlanta Falcons cut running back Bubba Bean, their No. 1 draft choice in 1976. They also cut defensive back Steve Luke, who started for Green Bay before coming to Atlanta, in a trade for defensive back Frank Reed and linebacker Dewey McClain. The Falcons are to receive a high 1982 draft choice if either Reed or McClain makes the Packers — but Reed was cut Tuesday.

Wide receiver Roger Carr signed a multi-year contract with Baltimore after a week-long absence from training camp.

Denver signed free-agent kicker Fred Steinfort, who hit 24-of-36 field goals last year for the Broncos.

In other moves: Buffalo cut quarterback-punter Johnny Evans, leaving incumbent

Greg Cater as the only punter on the team.

New Orleans waived five players and running back Hokie Garg was among three players placed on injured reserve. Wide receiver Tinker Owens was placed on physically unable to perform list.

Cincinnati placed safety Debra Jauron and wide receiver Debra Bass on injured reserve. Both coming off knee surgery.

Green Bay waived seven players, including tight end Bill LaSon, defensive back Charles Ganelius and punter Frank Garcia.

Kansas City announced the retirement of four-year running back Arnold Morgado.

Los Angeles cut seven players and defensive end Bob Coburn. Defensive tackle Greg Metzger were put on the reserve non-football injury list.

The New York Giants trimmed their roster with seven cuts. Linebacker Mike Whittington and cornerback Eric Felton were placed on injured reserve and defensive tackle Myron Lapka was placed on the reserve non-football injury list.

The Broncos cut running back I.M. Hipp, and placed guard Keith Bishop, tackle Matt Breaugh and wide receiver Anthony Arnold on injured reserve.

SMU grad named new head trainer

United Press International
COLLEGE STATION — Texas A&M University announced the hiring of a head trainer.

Steve Smith will replace Dave Heath who left the university to work for a Dallas business.

Smith, assistant trainer at Southern Methodist University for the past three years, worked primarily with football and basketball at SMU and served as trainer for the Dallas Diamonds, women's professional basketball team, this past season.

“While we regret the loss of Heath and wish him well in his new job, we are very pleased to have secured such a capable replacement as Steve Smith,” A&M Athletic Director Marvin Taylor said.

Smith is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southwest Trainers Association and is licensed as an athletic trainer in Texas. The 25-year-old bachelor was born in Comal, Texas and grew up in Richardson, Texas. He graduated from Pearce High School in 1973. He was an athletic trainer for all sports three years at Pearce. During five years at SMU, where he earned bachelor's degrees in journalism and physical education, he was a student trainer.
