Weightlifting club meets Thursday

The Texas A&M Weightlifting Club will hold its fall membership meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. in Room 137 of the Memorial Student Center. Dues for the club are $15 a person, and both men and women are invited to participate in the club.

The organization, which competes on the extramural level, enters its second year of existence, with about 300 members expected to participate in the club's activities. The group had 150 members during the summer, and club president Phil Bellmore has high hopes for the 1981-82 club.

The club has purchased about $2,000 worth of new equipment, including 600 pounds of plates and dumbbells, as well as a hache squat decline bench and quad pulley.

Toronto teaching Texas how to keep Jenkins quiet

ARLINGTON — Toronto Blue Jays manager Bob Mattick may want to encourage Texas Rangers pitcher Ferguson Jenkins to keep his mouth shut.

The Blue Jays, smarting from comments made by Jenkins a week ago, pounded the Rangers for the second time in as many games Tuesday night.

"I don't know about all of the guys, but I think what Fergie said was 'I'm going to hit you up,'" said center fielder Lloyd Moseby, who led a 13-hit attack in a 9-3 Toronto victory.

Jenkins defeated the Blue Jays last week and afterwards remarked, "Anybody can beat Toronto." Several Blue Jays had reference to the remark after Toronto took a 3-0 win in the series opener Monday and talk continued Tuesday night.

"When a guy says anyone can beat you, it kind of brings out your pride," said Moseby, who drove in four runs with a three-run homer and a single Tuesday.

"I think Texas woke us up," Moseby's homer, his eighth of the year, came with two out in the fourth inning and gave Toronto a 4-0 lead. He hit a slider off Len Whitehouse, the second of four Texas pitchers.

"He was hanging the ball all over the plate and I just reached out and got it. Man, it felt good," Moseby said.

"That was the most aggressive I've been all year," Mattick said. "We're starting to hit the ball a lot better now."

Toronto scored in each of the first five innings.

"It's our hitting that has been off — not our pitching. We were hitting .218 before the strike," Mattick said. "If we could hit, we'd be all right."

Jim Clancy improved his record to 4-8 and scattered nine hits in pitching his first complete game of the season. Danny Darwin, 8-7, was the loser.

The lone highlight for Texas was the hitting of newcomer Bob-

Jones, one of nine players called up from the Wichita, Kan., farm team hours before the game.

Jones entered the game in the sixth inning and drove in all of Texas' runs, smacking a two-run homer in the seventh and adding an RBI single in the ninth.

"I didn't even expect to get into the game, but (manager Don) Zimmer said go to left field," Jones said.

"I wasn't nervous. In fact, I felt good."
