OFFICIAL NOTICE

OFFICIAL NOTICE TO STUDENT CONCERNING TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY STUDENT RECORDS POLICY

Annually, Texas A&M University informs students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This Act, with which the University intends to comply fully, is intended to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review their education records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students also have the right to file complaints with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office of the Department of Education in Washington, D.C. concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the Act.

Local policy explains in detail the procedures to be used by the University for compliance with the provisions of the Act. Copies of the policy can be obtained at the Office of the Registrar, located in Heaton Hall on the Texas A&M University campus.

Questions concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be referred to the Office of the Registrar.

DIRECTORY INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 permits a university to establish certain categories of information regarding students as "directory information," and to then disclose this information to third parties without the student's prior consent. However, prior to releasing directory information concerning a student, the University must have afforded the student the opportunity to indicate that he does not want directory information concerning himself released without his prior written permission.

Texas A&M University proposes to designate the following personally identifiable information contained in a student's education records as "directory information."

- The student's name
- The local address, home address including country, and the telephone numbers of the student
- The date and place of birth of the student
- The names and address of the student's parents
- The student's major field of study
- The student's class schedule
- Participation in officially recognized activities and sports by the student
- Weight and height of members of athletic teams
- Dates of attendance, degrees and awards received
- Previous educational agencies or institutions attended by the student
- Sex, nationality, race and age of the student
- The student's photograph
- Achievement awards or honors
- The student's class standing
- Parking permit information

The University will release "directory information" to third parties unless the University receives timely, written objection to such release in accordance with the procedure herein described.

Students who wish to have "directory information" withheld must complete the appropriate form in the Registrar's Office by Friday, September 18, 1981. Students who have requested information withheld in the past must renew their request each year within the first three weeks of the fall semester.

The student must realize that approximately one month is needed to remove this information from materials already in circulation. However, the campus directory is printed only once a year, and after printing, no information can be removed.

The student is responsible for renewing this request each September, and the validity of the requests extends from the date of the request to the following September 1st. 3113

A CALL TO THE THIRSTY

What kind of woman was she?
She had five husbands and the one she was living with now wasn't even her husband. She had come to draw water from the well at noon in the heat of the day, not in the cool of the evening when the other women came. What brought her to the well alone at that hour?
What kind of woman was she?
A sinner, miserable and wretched? Yes. But more than that, she was a thirsty seeker. And she needed a drink.
Although surely she was sinful, the main issue in this woman's life, is not a sin, but thirst. She is a seeking one. She has come day after day to the well to draw water — and on this day, recorded in John, chapter 4, a marvelous Person is there, speaking to her.
Like no man before, He knows her need, and He is speaking directly: "Woman, if you knew the gift of God and who it is that is speaking to you . . . you would have asked of him and he would have given you living water."
Later, she replies: "Sir, give me this water."
Because of the deep thirst of her being, the inner longing for satisfaction, she had tried many things, even many men, looking for an answer for that longing. Her whole reckless past, brought before her eyes now in all its shambles, is just a sign, an indication of her deep, driving thirst.
Only one thing could fill her, satisfy her desire. And the One presently talking to her is speaking of exactly that one thing; speaking right to that need, deep in the center of her being.
Living Water.
This is exactly what Jesus has; it's what He is, and He is presenting Himself to all who are thirsty.

Jesus is not religion. Because of His crucifixion and resurrection. He as the life-giving Spirit, has made Himself available for you to drink. To taste, see. To sample this wonderful living water.
Religion always consists of requirements imposed upon man, a demand; while Christ, on the other hand, presents Himself to man as life, a supply.
As He talked to the woman there, things began to happen to her. As she spoke, she began to taste this living water. Leaving her waterpot, she ran back to the village, and brought many back with her, telling them to "come see a man . . . Christ."
The cry today is the same. As the Lord was seeking this thirsty woman, so he today, as the Spirit, is searching out His thirsty seekers. Those who would just care to take a drink.
This living water is more than mere doctrine. Bible knowledge, theology or empty traditions. Higher, richer, sweeter than all other human experiences is the rich experience of knowing Christ — inwardly — as living water.
Taste Him.
How?
Psalm 116 says: "I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord."
How did that thirsty woman get the living water? She asked. And He gave it to her.
To taste, simply open your mouth, and with an honest heart ask Christ to forgive your sins and to make His home in your heart.
Ask Him now to give you this living water. He surely will.
