Sports Entries Limited — Don't Delay!!!

With last year's numbers rising to 663 teams in Flag Football, 333 teams in Volleyball, 670 teams in Basketball and a meager 802 teams in Softball, the Intramural-Recreational Sports Department is often faced with a mild dilemma.

Although we will do everything in our power to accommodate all interested parties, we cannot guarantee all teams a spot in our intramural programs. Limited playing space, available officials, and constantly increasing program varieties force us to place a cap on the number of entrants that can be scheduled into a given sport.

Even though sport entries are usually open for 7 working days, you may not always find room in the tournament if you wait until too near the closing date. To avoid becoming a 'late entry' (a team or individual wishing to enter after a tournament is already full) follow some simple guidelines.

- 1) Plan to enter early in the week — the first or second day of the entry period is usually the best time.
- 2) Expect to possibly have to wait in line — we will work as quickly and efficiently as we know how.
- 3) Come prepared — have your entry fees with you ($20 for team sports, $1 per person for individual and dual sports). BRING YOUR ID CARD AND KNOW AT LEAST TWO DIFFERENT PHONE NUMBERS AND ADDRESSES to put on the entry card.
- 4) Be prepared to select alternate times or classes if first choices are already full.

The department does not wish to scare away any potential participants, so if you follow these simple guidelines, you should have no trouble obtaining a space in the intramural sport of your choice.

Class C - Everybody Wins!

The Intramural-Recreational Sports Department has changed the format of competition in Class C action for the coming year.

Under the new format, there will be no Class C All-University Champions. On the contrary, all participants in this recreational league will eventually emerge as winners.

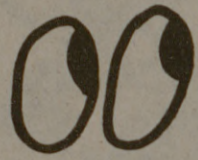

Class C aspirants in team sports (Flag Football, Soccer, etc.) will be scheduled into league (usually, 6 teams to a league) and will then compete in round-robin league play (usually, 5 games). Upon the conclusion of the league schedule, the season will over. This format enables the recreational athlete the opportunity to compete without the pressures often associated with Classes A and B.

Class C entrants in the individual and dual sports (Tennis, Pickleball, etc.) will also be placed into leagues (usually, 4 persons or teams) and will then compete in round-robin league play (usually, 3 games) with no ultimate Class C champion. Unlike previous years, where Class C competitors participated in single-elimination tournaments, participants are now all but guaranteed (with some exceptions) 3 matches.

So now if an individual or team is overmatched in their first outing, the season is not necessarily over for them. Stop by the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office (Rm. 159 East Kyle) and enter the sport(s) of your choice — Class A for the highly skilled and highly competitive, Class B for the moderately skilled and moderate competition and Class C for... well JUST FOR THE FUN OF IT!!!!

Looking Ahead

For those persons and teams wishing to look ahead to next week's Intramural Sports opening should note that next Monday (Sept. 14) marks the first day that entries will be accepted for Golf Singles, Pickleball Singles and Doubles, Innertube Water Basketball, and Soccer. Golf and Pickleball will require a one dollar entry fee while Innertube Water Basketball and Soccer teams will need a $20 team entry fee.

Special Events

Are you interested in trying your skills in a wide variety of athletic events, but don't want to commit to a semester long activity? Then the Intramural-Recreational Sports Department's Special Events program is for you.

Special Events are usually one-night activities in such exciting activities as Field Goal Kicking, Home Run Hitting, or Long Driving.

The Field Goal Contest will enable the recreational athlete the opportunity to utilize the artificial turf of Kyle Field, while the Home Run Contest pits the recreational swinger against the A&M pitching machine. Both of these activities open today (Monday, September 7) and entries will be accepted until 5 p.m. next Tuesday (September 15).

For the golf enthusiasts, the Long-Driving contest determines which Aggie can drive the darned little white ball the greatest distance, while the Pass & Kick Contest combines those skills that youngsters (and oldsters) across the country have enjoyed every fall for years.

Winding up the fall Special Event calendar will be Fun Fun Golf, a 5,000 meter Fun Fun Weightlifting Contest and the first annual Aggie Olympic.

Each of these events requires only a one dollar entry fee. Putt also required green fees and winners will receive a University T-Shirt. For more information on any of these events, contact Tom Weis in the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office (159 East Kyle).

... And Introducing Innertube Water Basketball

This fall at Texas A&M the Intramural-Recreational Sports Department will introduce a new sport into its team sports program. Innertube water basketball makes the intramural scene when entries open September 14, 1981.

This new sport is a combination of innertube water polo and basketball. Teams will consist of six players each. Points shall be scored by shooting a water polo ball through a specially constructed basketball goal set up on the side of the pool.

The court will be set up on one-half (cross-ways) of a standard-sized pool. Leagues will be offered in Men's, Women's and CoRec divisions.

As in other sports, Classes A, B, & C will be offered. Classes A & B will compete in a 3 game round-robin league schedule with all teams going to the playoffs. Class C teams will be scheduled into round-robin leagues having no playoffs.

For further information, splash on down to the IM-REC Sports Office in Room 159 East Kyle.
