

Sports

Major League Baseball

National League				American League
East				East
St. Louis	18	12	.600	Detroit	22	11	.667
Montreal	16	15	.516	New York	19	14	.576
Chicago	16	17	.485	Milwaukee	20	15	.571
New York	15	18	.455	Baltimore	18	15	.545
Philadelphia	13	19	.406	Boston	17	15	.531
Pittsburgh	14	21	.400	Cleveland	17	18	.486
				Toronto	15	16	.484
West				West
Houston	22	11	.667	Kansas City	18	15	.545
Los Angeles	19	14	.576	Oakland	15	16	.484
Atlanta	18	14	.563	Minnesota	16	18	.471
San Francisco	17	15	.531	Texas	14	17	.452
Cincinnati	17	15	.531	Chicago	13	20	.394
San Diego	10	24	.294	Seattle	13	20	.394
				California	12	19	.387

Sunday's Results		Monday's Games		Sunday's Results		Monday's Games
Houston 3, San Francisco 0	Cincinnati at Houston	California 8, Texas 7	Oakland at Texas
Pittsburgh 3, Philadelphia 2	Los Angeles at San Diego	New York 10, Boston 6	Detroit at Boston
San Diego 6, Atlanta 4	Atlanta at San Francisco	Detroit 8, Cleveland 6	Minnesota at Toronto
St. Louis 4, New York 2		Milwaukee 5, Baltimore 0	New York at Milwaukee
Los Angeles 4, Cincinnati 2		Minnesota 7, Chicago 6	Kansas City at California
Montreal 10, Chicago 6		Kansas City 6, Oakland 5	Chicago at Seattle

Angels rally for 8-7 victory

Rangers blow another one

United Press International
ANAHEIM, Calif. — Eight-game losing streaks aren't easy to break. Just ask the California Angels.

The Angels, proving they couldn't cope with prosperity, blew a 6-0 lead Sunday against the Texas Rangers and then had to battle back for an 8-7 triumph in 12 innings.

The victory was marred when Angel first baseman Rod Carew collided with Bill Sample in the top of the 12th and was carried from the field on a stretcher. Carew suffered a mild concussion.

"He has a sore shoulder but they don't see any lack of mobility," Angel Manager Gene Mauch said after doctors had examined Carew. "You sure don't see that many plays in baseball where a guy gets hit like that."

Sample also appeared injured but was able to walk off the field.

"I'm still dizzy and my neck is sore," he said after the game. "I really don't remember the play."

Neither could Carew, Mauch said. "He can't remember Campy (Angel third baseman Bert Campaneris) throwing the ball," the Angel manager said. Carew was run over by Sample while jumping for Campaneris' high throw.

The Rangers rallied from a 6-0 deficit with a single run in the fifth and a four-run sixth to chase Mike Witt. Mauch thought Witt was pressing too hard to break the team's losing skein.

"If our record had been normal instead of what it is (12-19 for the second season) Witt would have pitched much better," he said. "He may have been going a tad too hard trying to put a stop to this nonsense."

Juan Beniquez' sacrifice fly scored Dan Ford from third base in the 12th inning to give the Angels the win.

Ford opened the 12th with an infield hit off loser Steve Comer, 7-2. Comer wild-pitched Ford to second and Bobby Grich's grounder moved him to third. After an intentional walk to Ed Ott, Beniquez flied to right to allow the run to score easily and make a winner of Steve Renko, 6-4, who pitched three scoreless relief innings.

Mauch was asked why he elected to leave Beniquez, who entered the game batting .184, in the game in the 12th inning instead of using Fred Lynn as a pinch hitter.

"At 9:30 a.m. Lynn was scheduled to start but by 10 a.m. it was obvious he couldn't," Mauch said of Lynn who has been hobbled by a sore left knee. "I didn't consider hitting for him (Beniquez). He'll be in there as long as Lynn is unable to play."

The Angels built a 4-0 lead the first inning on a three-run homer by Don Baylor and a shot by Grich. California took more runs in the fourth, including Beniquez's second homer.

Pat Putnam doubled and scored on Johnny Grubb's single in the fifth. Putnam singled in one and Mark Wagner singled in more runs as Texas scored in the unearned runs in the sixth.

Knepper pitches Astros to 3-0 win over Giants

United Press International
HOUSTON — Adversity seems to bring out the best in Houston Astros pitcher Bob Knepper.

The San Francisco Giants collected nine hits Sunday, but were frustrated by Knepper and Frank LaCorte who combined to strand 12 men on base in leading the Astros a 3-0 win.

"We had a lot of chances but couldn't get anyone home," said loser Doyle Alexander, 8-7. It was the second straight shutout suffered by the Giants with Alexander on the mound.

"Sometimes that happens," he said. Houston catcher Alan Ashby said the win was typical of Knepper, now 8-3.

"He seems to pitch best when he's in a problem situation," said Ashby.

"He was not getting hit all over the place. He'd just get into a bind and pitch like crazy. He has the ability to get a popup or a strikeout when he needs it."

Manager Bill Virdon agreed. "When he had to reach back, it seemed like he could and his control seemed better too," Virdon said.

Knepper, acquired by Houston from the Giants, allowed six hits and walked three in seven innings, retiring the side in order only in the first. LaCorte, credited with his fifth save, allowed three hits.

"I got tired in the last inning and wasn't cutting loose and easy," said Knepper, adding "I learned a while ago that when I'm tired to get out of there."

The win marked the 11th straight at home for the Astros, lifting Houston to 22-11 on the second season for a three-game edge over second-place Los Angeles.

Houston opened the scoring in the first inning. Phil Garner reached on a fielder's choice and Jose Cruz singled to put runners on the corners. With Denny Walling at bat, Alexander threw a low and inside pitch that escaped catcher Bob Brenly to allow the run to score.

In the seventh, a single by Reynolds and a run-scoring, pinch double by Danny Heep upped the Astros' advantage to 2-0. Reynolds drove in a run with an infield hit in the eighth and relief pitcher Al Holland and catcher Milt May were ejected from the game for arguing the call at first base.

for anything...for everything...WANT ADS

Hayes watches Buckeyes play for the first time since 1978

United Press International
COLUMBUS, Ohio — Woody Hayes came home over the weekend, but few people knew of his presence.

Hayes, 68, was one of 87,000 fans at Ohio Stadium Saturday who watched Ohio State defeat Duke 34-13. Hayes coached Ohio State football teams for 28 years before being fired in December 1978 for slugging a Clemson player in the Gator Bowl. He never attended an Ohio State game after that until Saturday when, for the most part, he sat alone in an unused radio booth in the press box.

"I'm feeling pretty good," Hayes said. "I'd like to see another touchdown and put away."

The Buckeyes, leading 23-

the time of Hayes' comment, scored on the next play and was it for the Blue Devils.

DIETING?

Even though we do not prescribe diets, we make it possible for many to enjoy a nutritious meal while they follow their doctor's orders. You will be delighted with the wide selection of low calorie, sugar free and fat free foods in the Souper Salad Area, Sbis Dining Center Basement.

OPEN

Monday through Friday 10:45 AM-1:45 PM

QUALITY FIRST

McDONALD'S INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

At University Drive

Now at Manor East Mall

IM Game Plan

GOLF ENTRIES OPEN: If you enjoy playing the links, the Intramural-Recreational Sports Department's Golf Singles Tournament is a putt away. Entries open today and run until Tuesday, September 22. The 18-hole tournament will be on Sunday October 4 or Sunday October 18 if it rains on the fourth.

SOCCER ENTRIES OPEN: Entries for soccer also open today and run through Tuesday, September 22. There are eight divisions this year: Corps, Fish, Men's and Women's Dorm, Men's and Women's Independent and Men's and Women's Faculty-Staff-Grad. The entry fee is $20 per team and there are three classes of competition: A, B, and C.

HOMERUN HITTING: If you like watching Dave Kingman and Greg Luzinski knock 'em out of the park, the Intramural Department's Homerun Hitting contest is for you. However, tomorrow, Tuesday, September 15, is the last day to sign-up. The contest will be held on Wednesday, September 23 at 5:00 p.m. at Olsen Field.

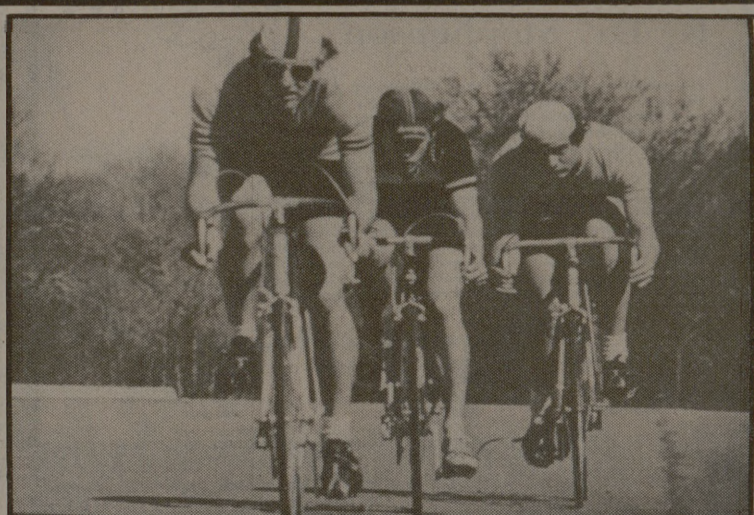

FIELD GOAL KICKING: Whether you come from the side or straight on, Tuesday September 15 is the last day to enter the Intramural Department's Field Goal Kicking Contest. Come by room 159 East Kyle for more information and sign-up for one of the most competitive events of the year.

FOOTBALL ENTRIES CLOSE: Down, set and hike on over to 159 East Kyle and sign your team up to play flag football. Remember tomorrow, Tuesday, September 15, is the last day to enter. The entry fee is $20 per team and play begins Monday, September 21. The divisions will be men's and Women's Dorm and Independent, CoRec, Corps, Fish and Faculty-Staff-Grad with three classes. All team captains or representatives must pick up their schedules on Thursday, September 17 at 5:00 p.m. in Rudder Theater. Anyone interested in officiating should contact Dave Kerr at the IM Office.

TENNIS SINGLES: All right hackers, now it is your turn on the tennis courts for the IM Department's tennis singles tournament. However, your time has about run out - entries close Tuesday, Sept. 15. It is a single elimination tournament in Classes A and B, while Class C plays round robin. Players must supply their own equipment including a new can of balls at every match. Each person must provide a new can of balls or they forfeit. The winner brings the can of balls to the next match. The entry fee is $1 per person and play begins Tuesday, Sept. 22.

INNERTUBE WATER BASKETBALL: A new event this year, Innertube Water Basketball, is sure to be the splash of the season. Entries open today and run through Tuesday, Sept. 29. There are three divisions open - Men's, Women's, and CoRec. A team captain's meeting will be held Thursday, September 24 at 5 p.m. in room 267 G. Rollie White. All team captains or representatives must pick up their schedules at this meeting. Anyone interested in officiating should contact Lynette Ginn in the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office, 159 East Kyle.

ENTRIES OPEN: The racquet sport that swept the campus last year, Pickleball, returns this fall. Entries for singles and doubles open today and run through Sept. 22. The entry fee is $1 per person and schedules will be posted by Thursday, Sept. 24.

Texas A&M's more-than-20 extramural sports clubs are gearing up for competition this year. For more information about the Cycling Club and other extramural clubs, contact the Intramural Office.

September Special Events

Men and women who wish to enter FIELD GOAL KICKING or HOMERUN HITTING must register and pay a one dollar entry fee per person in the Intramural Office by September 15.

The Field Goal Contest will be held in Kyle Field on September 16 at 7:00 p.m. Each entrant will attempt one kick at every distance beginning at the 10-yard line for men and the 5-yard line for women and increasing at intervals of five yards.

* Participants will be allowed to practice beginning at 6:30 p.m.

In the Homerun Hitting Contest each person will receive ten swings at baseballs thrown from a pitching machine. Points will be awarded for balls landing within designated distance markers. A practice session will be held on September 22 from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. at Olsen Field.

Wheelchair Workout

In its efforts to service ALL members of the TAMU community, the Intramural-Recreational Sports Department has developed a unique exercise program for the handicapped.

Individuals will have a chance to shake, rattle and roll with stretching exercises, obstacle courses, sprints, and relays. Special events will include ball handling, wheeling wizardry, and more. Each session will be followed by discussions.

The Wheelchair Workout is designed to provide an opportunity for physical, as well as social, recreation. Participants will explore and develop their movement capabilities while improving speed, strength, and endurance. New and different skills will be taught during the special activities phase of each workout.

Workout sessions will be held twice a week in the late afternoon or evening in East Kyle. There will be a meeting today at 4:00 p.m. in Room 189 Aston to determine the best time.

For more information, individuals can contact Jerry Lyons or Eric Hunter at 845-7826 or stop by the Intramural Office in 159 East Kyle.

Fish Intramural Day

Freshmen members of the Corps had their first taste of intramural competition during Fish Intramural Day last Saturday on Duncan Field.

Fish from each outfit participated in a variety of events designed to build enthusiasm and morale. At the end of the day, B-Battery had won the tug-of-war and Squadron 9 had won overall. More than 40 outfits competed in football, volleyball, and tug-of-war.

Texas A&M University has one of the largest intramural programs in the country. Last year 1,651 Flag Football games were played involving 8,496 Aggies on 663 teams and 683 people played a total of 667 Tennis Singles matches. There will be a meeting for all DORMITORY INTRAMURAL CHAIRMEN on Monday, September 14 at 7:00 p.m. in 140 MSC.

New Division Offered

In addition to the previous intramural divisions (Fish, Corps, Men's and Women's Dorm, Men's and Women's Independent and CoRec), a new division will also be offered this coming year.

The Faculty/Staff/Grad division will be open to members of the A&M faculty and staff as well as graduate students. Spouses of persons in this classification are also eligible to compete.

Potential Faculty/Staff/Grad participants may choose to compete in Men's or Women's Independent. However an individual may not compete in two divisions (Exception: CoRec and one other non-CoRec division).

As with all divisions, leagues depend on adequate numbers of teams entering each respective division in order for that division to be offered.

Acknowledgements

McDonald's® Intramural Highlights is sponsored each Monday in the Battalion by your local McDonald's® Restaurants at University Drive and in the Manor East Mall. Stories provided by members of the Intramural department staff, photos by David Einsel and Bob Sebree.

Mark Allen's volleyball skills helped his team, B-2, during Fish Intramural Day games. Mark is our "Be Our Guest" winner this week and can stop by the Intramural Office for his free meal coupon.

