CHRIST

He's easy winner in any contest for THE MOST HATED AND THE MOST LOVED PERSON OF ALL HISTORY! Oddly enough, He has something to say to both those who hate Him and those that love Him and even those who may not care to listen to Him. We think He has spoken authentically in the Bible in simple terms, not just a lot of meaningless religious gobbledey-gook but rockbottom facts about people living with people, the energy problem, sexual freedom, war, getting ahead, ugly people, fun, money, fanatics, doing your thing, study and results, hypocrisy, dirty talk, for Christ's sake heaven and hell, body and soul, jogging smart losers, normal schizophrenics. Of course, we can't cover everything every Sunday but you'll get some of it any time. We try to get down to the basics. You may really like it!

Wolverine-Irish battle tops slate

United Press International
Following Wisconsin's 21-14 victory over Michigan — the top-ranked pre-season team — Notre Dame catapulted into the No. 1 spot on the strength of a 27-9 victory over Louisiana State.

And Michigan, which fell to No. 12, hosts the Fighting Irish Saturday in a nationally televised game scheduled to begin at noon CDT.

"Michigan has a lot of psychological factors working for them," said Notre Dame Coach Gerry Faust, who opened his college coaching career last week. "They are coming off a loss and they have lost to Notre Dame the last two years."

Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler said his team will have to come off more adversity than at any other time in his career with the Wolverines.

"What is worse for us than coming off a loss is that we didn't play well," said Schembechler.

In order to defeat Notre Dame, the Wolverines must show more consistency on offense where they were outgained by Wisconsin, 439-229.

Southern California, which jumped from No. 5 to No. 2 following its 43-7 triumph over Tennessee, meets Indiana, a 21-20 winner over Northwestern. The Trojans are led by tailback Marcus Allen, who ran for 210 yards against Tennessee.

Here are the selections:

Miami (Fla.) 21, Houston 14 — The home field advantage pulls this one out for Miami.
