Faculty-staff directory ready for pick-up today

Starting today, the 1981-82 Texas A&M University Faculty-Staff directories can be picked up in 216 Reed McDonald.

This new directory only includes listings for Texas A&M faculty and staff. Student listings will be printed in a complete campus directory scheduled for release in early November, Don Johnson, coordinator of Student Publications said.

The faculty-staff directory costs $3.50 and about 8,000 are available. Student payments recorded on fee slips only cover the complete campus directory, Johnson said. The campus directory will cost $2.50 in checkoff but $3.50 if purchased over the counter, Johnson said.

These construction workers for Allen M. Campbell Co. Contractors add cement to a support pillar on the new Engineering Laboratory Center being built next to Zachry Engineering Center. Work will soon be halted on part of the construction because of the recent decision by the Board of Regents to make the basement classrooms and laboratories instead of underground parking as first planned.

Commodores to sail into town Oct. 9

MSC Town Hall Committee will present the Commodores Oct. 9 in G. Rollie White Coliseum. Tickets go on sale Friday.

The Commodores gained popularity in the late 1970's with hits such as "Easy" and "Brick House," and have held their fans with other hits such as "Three Times a Lady," "Still" and their newest release "Build Me Up."

Option pass and general admission tickets will be sold Friday and Monday at the MSC box office. Reserve seats not claimed by option pass holders will go on sale Tuesday. The tickets are $8, $10 and $11.

Earlier this year, MSC Town Hall tried to book the Commodores, but were unable to work out arrangements, committee member Pattie Boedeker said. But the group "fell into our laps" Tuesday she said.

"They had a cancellation October 9," Boedeker said they called us."

The concert is at 8 p.m. in Rollie White Coliseum for a Midnight Yell Practice for Texas A&M-University of Houston football game.
