Rangers release Jenkins

United Press International
ARLINGTON — Despite his "proud" record, the Texas Rangers said they were releasing starting pitcher Fergie Jenkins from his contract next year.

"We regret he will no longer be with us," said the club's vice president, Eddie Robinson. "With 264 career victories, he has a record of which he can be proud."

Jenkins, 37, won only five games this year and lost eight. His earned run average was 4.50.

In six seasons with the Rangers, from 1974 to 75 and again from 1978 to 1981, Jenkins had a 93-72 record.

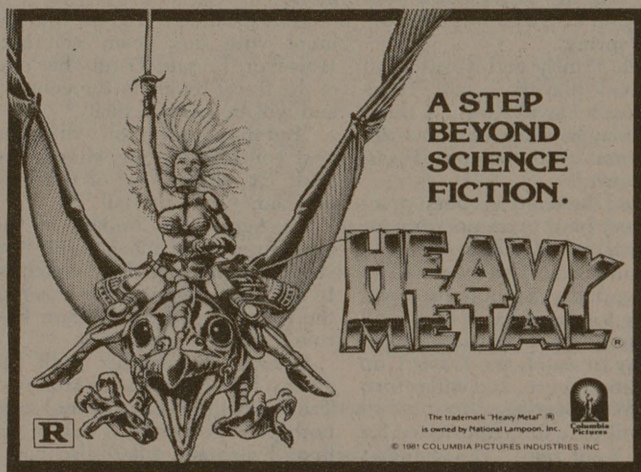

The only blemish on Jenkins record as a Ranger came in the 1980 season when the Rangers traveled to Toronto, Jenkins hometown, and cocaine was found in his luggage.

Softball team keeps rolling

By FRANK L. CHRISTLIEB

Although Coach Bob Brock of the Texas A&M University women's softball team has given his freshmen a great deal of the credit for the team's 20-2 record, the upperclassmen have played important roles as well.

Names like Lisa Martinez, Iva Jackson, Josie Carter and Gay McNutt have been the most frequently mentioned names on the team through the first four weeks of the season. However, Brock says the performances of the freshman players have overshadowed the contributions of the veteran players, who have silently led the Aggies to their impressive record.

Brock cited the play of Shannon Murray, Carrie Austgen, Karen Guerrero, Patti Holthaus and Mary Lou Youngblood as critical to his team's success. Murray recently had a cast removed from a broken finger on her throwing hand, and Brock is pleased with the efforts she's made since returning.

"Shannon has come back in the last two tournaments, and is beginning to contribute again," Brock said. "She's coming on and she's doing a good job. She's been in a kind of cheerleader spirit role (while not playing), but she's really come on."

"Mary Lou Youngblood has been struggling all year and she's come out of it. Her fielding has been perfect and she's done a good job. It's really good to see her break out of it now. The seniors and our old hands are beginning to come in and do well."

Brock also praised the play of Texas Women's University transfer Linda Lancaster, who has played first base and catcher after having pitched centerfield at TWU.

Although the offense had worried Brock before the season started, he doesn't have too many complaints about a team that is hitting .303. That average is led by Jackson's .397, followed by Eya Resendez' .368, Carter's .352 and Martinez' .352. Freshman Carter leads the team in home runs, and has also knocked in 27 runs in the 22 games Aggies have played.

Even more impressive than the surge of the Aggie offense has been the pitching of starters Eya Resendez' .368, Carter's .352 and Martinez' .352. Freshman Carter leads the team in home runs, and has also knocked in 27 runs in the 22 games Aggies have played.
