Holtz knows Cougar veer poses threat

United Press International
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — The Houston Cougar veer offense, unlike the basic running and passing attack Arkansas faced last week against Texas, could present some problems for the Razorbacks Saturday, coach Lou Holtz says.

"The option really neutralizes what we can do on defense," Holtz said Wednesday. "We have to control the line of scrimmage, plus we have to stop the fullback, quarterback and pitchback on every play. And then you have to stop their passing game."

"If we miss a tackle, it's a first down," Holtz said.

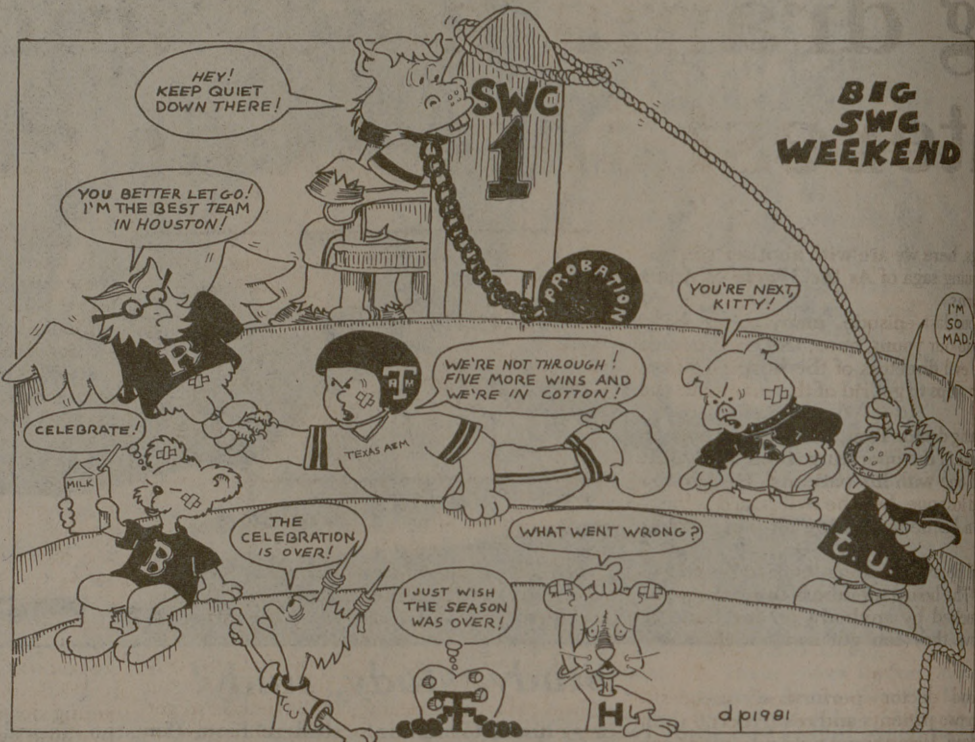

Houston coach Bill Yeoman plans to take advantage of his veer offense Saturday, using it to neutralize the Razorback defense and to score some touchdowns, which is something Houston recently has had trouble doing.

"We're really happy to have been as close as we've been," Yeoman said of the Cougars' inability to cross the goal-line. "All we've got to do now is get into the end zone."

Arkansas comes off an overwhelming 42-11 win over top-ranked Texas last week, while Houston brings a 1-2 conference record into Saturday's game. The Cougars dropped a 38-22 decision to SMU last week, and lost 7-6 to Texas A&M the week before.

Yeoman said Houston's two conference losses pose no threat to his team's outlook on the rest of the season.

Fired college coach proud of record

United Press International
FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Sarkis "Sark" Arslanian, fired this week as Colorado State University head football coach, says his record wasn't that bad, considering the caliber of the Rams' competition.

"I am leaving here with a 46-46-4 record," Arslanian said Wednesday, one day after he was relieved of his duties and told that his contract would not be renewed.

"Twenty of the losses were from teams like Texas, Tennessee, West Virginia, Mississippi State, Florida State, Houston, Iowa State and many other national powers that we have had to compete against," Arslanian said.

Arslanian pointed out that he took a program that was in shambles (1-10 in 1972 under coach Jerry Wampfler) and "within four years had the best record in history of CSU with a 9-2-1 record and an 18th national ranking.

Even with the Rams' 0-6 start in 1981, Arslanian said he hoped had taught his squad "well enough" that none of them will quit. "We will strive to win all the rest of the games on the schedule."
