Ridin' the half-tube

Recent good weather has allowed many students to get out and enjoy themselves. This student used the time to practice his skating form at the "half-tube" in the Grove. The ramp was built by members of the TAMU Surf Club.

Bexar County tries fire codes to close massage parlors

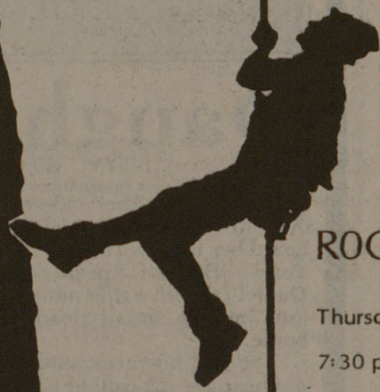

United Press International
SAN ANTONIO — Bexar County is turning to fire code restrictions to help shut down massage parlors suspected of being houses of prostitution.

In the wake of an FBI shakeup that resulted in a sheriff's deputy being charged with accepting protection money from the parlors, the county fire marshal Tuesday inspected the spas and found at least two that had received sheriff's permits without passing fire code inspections. Last week, the FBI arrested Tom Chavana, chief of the sheriff's task force, and charged him with extorting a $400 protection payoff from the operators of a massage parlor. Chavana was freed on $35,000 bond.

Sheriff Joe Neaves took the first step in reorganizing his department Tuesday by requesting funding for a new internal affairs division to investigate unprofessional behavior by officers.
