Country's Pride
will perform at 8

Charlie Pride will appear in G. Rollie White Coliseum tonight at 8. His hit, "I've Never Been So Loved in All My Life," has been No. 1 on Billboard's Country Chart for two weeks.
Pride, who just finished a tour in Canada, has recorded 38 albums; 14 of those albums went gold. Pride won two Grammy awards: "Songs of Love" for Best Country Album, and "Did You Think to Pray" for Best Religious Album.
One of 11 brothers and sisters,

Pride became interested in country music by listening to the Grand Ole Opry on the radio. After a brief stint in baseball with the Los Angeles Angels in 1961, he entered the country music profession full time.
The MSC Town Hall Committee is presenting the concert. Tickets are still available, and ticket prices are $8.75, $7.75 and $6.75.
The Coliseum box office will open at 6:30 p.m.

The Great Pumpkin flies again

Members of C-2 try to protect the Great Pumpkin (far right) in its flight through the quad. The pumpkin didn't make it. Its head was pulled off and broken, ending the seasonal ritual of the Aggie Band and C-2.
