Student seeks revenge by putting LSD in coffee

CHICAGO — Angered because his 61-year-old teacher sent him to the principal's office a 13-year-old parochial school student slipped some LSD into her coffee.

Antonete Indovina was taken to a hospital when she began hallucinating. She was listed in good condition Tuesday.

The youth was being held in a juvenile detention center pending a hearing in Juvenile Court Thursday, police said.

Mrs. Indovina sent the boy to the principal's office at Notre Dame grammar school Monday for throwing paper airplanes, police said. When he returned to her class the boy dropped a tablet of "Orange Sunshine" LSD into her coffee as she wrote on a blackboard.

Mrs. Indovina drank the coffee. She began hallucinating later another teacher called an ambulance. Mrs. Indovina's symptoms were not serious, said a hospital spokesman.

Later in the day another student told a priest the name of the boy who allegedly drugged Mrs. Indovina.

Vietnam vets rate extra recognition

United Press International
Vietnam War veterans, rebuffed by a nation that chose to ignore the war they fought were the special focus of Veteran's Day celebrations Tuesday and the beneficiaries of a new self-help program initiated by President Reagan.

Federal state and local government offices along with most banks and schools will be closed across the country in commemoration of the nation's servicemen and women.

The new Vietnam Veterans Leadership Program has been budgeted $2 million per year for three years and "is designed to draw volunteers from the pool of successful Vietnam veterans to provide guidance for those with lingering problems," Reagan said.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of American forces in Vietnam, said there is moving out of an "irksome, sordid period as the scars of Vietnam begin to heal and the nam vet is beginning to be recognized as an asset to the nation."

"Few have had the anguish of doing what the nation's leaders asked, doing it well and then being asked to endure the abuse of neighbors," Westmoreland said Tuesday as the key speaker at a pre-dedication for a war memorial in front of the Providence Center in Rhode Island.

Alf Thompson, 86, a veteran of two world wars, said he has been able to understand those who carried out their duty in Vietnam and greeted with scorn and hostility when they returned home.

"They didn't even court-munity recognition," the 83-year-old resident said. "They were shamed."

WORSHIP IS A WAY OF SAYING WHO OR WHAT IS SHAPING YOUR LIFE. WHO OR WHAT IS LOVE. If you want your life shaped by God, worship Him. He is important to you. We will be glad to have you with us Sunday at 9:15 or 10:45 a.m. or 7 p.m.
