Campus Theater 846-6512

Private Lessons: Ah, young love — with an older woman. A young teenage boy is seduced by Sylvia Krystal, famous for her appearances in the "Emanuel" movies. Rated R.

Eleven: If you thought the movie "10" was something, wait till you see this one. Bo Derek move over (or roll over?) Oh, in case you're wondering — in order to compete with "10" they had to rate this one X. Brooks West stars. Midnight Friday and Saturday.

Manor East 823-8300

Raiders of the Lost Ark: It looks like this movie title has been permanently affixed to the marquee of this theater and the film will be shown forever. Maybe that's how motion pictures get the figures for "largest net gross" — if this one's left around much longer it's sure to win. It still stars Harrison Ford as Indiana Jones and Karen Allen as his fiery female companion. Rated PG.

Time Bandits: A fictional-kid movie for adults about a little boy who gets mixed up with six dwarfs who have a map which shows holes in time, where one can step into the Middle Ages or onto the deck of the Titanic. Strange but interesting. Starring a zany cast of characters including Shelly Duvall, Sean Connery, Ian Holm, and directed by Terry Gilliam (Monty Python fans rejoice!). George Harrison provides the musical score.

Eye Of The Needle: Donald Sutherland plays a Nazi spy on the loose in England. Kate Nelligan is the affection-starved wife who has an affair with Sutherland and then must destroy him to save herself, to say nothing of the Free World. This is a well-made thriller resembling the films of the '40s. Rated R.

Stripes: Bill Murray stars in this cross between "Private Benjamin" and "Animal House." He plays a cabbie who enlists while in a rut over his going-nowhere life and ends up forming his own brigade and teaching his troops everything he knows. Midnight Friday and Saturday. Rated R.

MSC Cepheid Variable 845-1515

Doctor Doolittle: Rex Harrison stars in this Academy Award winning musical version of the fondly remembered children's tale. Physician Doolittle would rather talk with animals than people. Eager to find the great pink snail, he finances his search by exhibiting his rare two-headed llama in a circus. Rated G. Thursday at 7:30 and 10:15 p.m. in 601 Rudder.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-2916

La Cage Aux Folles II: If you liked La Cage Aux Folles I, you'll really like this continuation of the story of Renalto and Albin. This time they find themselves involved in international intrigue and the results are funny as always. This is the sequel to the movie that conquered America's fear of captions (French no less.) Rated R. Friday and Saturday at 7:30 and 9:45 in Rudder Theater.

No Nukes: The film footage of the five "No Nukes" concerts held at Madison Square Garden, N.Y. The film is laced with the anti-nuclear views of the artists and comments by prominent anti-nuclear spokespersons. Includes Jackson Browne, James Taylor, Carly Simon, Crosby, Stills & Nash, Bonnie Raitt, the Doobie Brothers and John Hall. Rated PG. Midnight Friday and Saturday in Rudder Theater.

The Idolmaker: Lacking the looks to be a rock idol herself, Vinne Vicari (Ray Sharkey) molds others to fame. He transforms two young street hoodlums into rock idols. This insightful look at promoting teenage heartthrobs in the late fifties offers a perceptive look at rock and roll. Rated PG. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

Plitt Cinema I&II: 846-6714

An American Werewolf in London: Expect to alternately laugh and be sick. Writer-director John Landis created this weird story of a werewolf, complete with full moons and man-into-fur transformations. David Naughton plays the werewolf. Jenny Agutter stars as the werewolf's — friend? Rated R.

Arthur: Dudley Moore plays a millionaire playboy (Arthur) whose life has been one long, usually drunken spree until he falls for a nobody (Liza Minnelli) from Queens. John Gielgud as Arthur's salty-tongued valet and best friend just about steals the show. Theme song by Christopher Cross. Rated PG.

Monty Python and the Holy Grail: The Monty Python troupe has cut loose on the knights of the round table in the comedy farce. It offers an interesting twist to an old story. Rated R. Midnight Friday and Saturday.

Backstage: Thursday night be entertained by Doug and Frankie; $1.50 cover. Friday and Saturday's band unannounced. Enjoy the 4-7 happy hour with 35¢ draft beer, $2 pitcher beer and reduced-price drinks. Talent performs from 9 to close, and the kitchen stays open till 10:30.

Grins: George Enslie performs tonight. Friday and Saturday nights it's the ever popular bluegrass of Uncle Walt's band; $3.50 cover. Enjoy happy hour's reduced-price drinks weekdays from 4-7 p.m.

Lakeview: Tonight it's nickel beer night — Lone Star draught 5¢ a cup, and $2 a pitcher. And enjoy music by the Dennis Ivey Band; $2 cover. Saturday kick your heels to Johnny Bush and the Bandoleras; $5 cover.

Rebels: This week's band is Your Move; no cover charge. Happy hour features half-price drinks and appetizers 4-7 weekdays and 11-7 on Saturday. Kitchen closes at 11:30.

Rosewood Junction: Rock and roll at Rosewood. Happy hour has half-price drinks 11:30 to 7 Wednesday through Saturday, and 11:30 till close Monday.

Texas Hall of Fame: Tonight it's the Debonaires; $2 cover charge. Friday's band is The Brown Brothers from Houston; $3 cover. Saturday dance to the Matheny Brothers from San Antonio; $3 cover. Next Wednesday night it's Silver Creek; $2 cover or free admission with a driver's license and current Texas A&M I.D. Pitcher beer $2.50.

Surf Club: The Texas A&M Surf Club will present "Free Ride," a film about surfing, tonight, at 7:30 in 200 Heldenfels. The film features surfers Shaun Tomson, Rabbit Bartholemew and Mark Richards, with music by Pablo Cruise. Jan Michael-Vincent narrates. Admission is $3, $2 for surf club members.

Semi-Formal: The Off-Campus Aggies are having their first-ever semi-formal dance this Friday, featuring the music of the Texas Nuggets. Admission is $8 per couple, for dancing and munchies from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Lulac Hall on Sandy Point Road. See story in this issue for more details.

Madrigal Dinners: Diners can take a trip to sixteenth century England at the MSC Madrigal Dinners Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Food, drink, entertainment and crafts of the period will be available. See story in this issue. Admission is $10.
