A&M to host volleyball tournament in G. Rollie

Texas A&M University will host the sixth annual A&M Valentine Open volleyball tournament Saturday in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

The tourney will feature 26 women's teams and 24 men's teams from around the state, including several from Houston, Dallas, Austin and San Antonio. The competition begins at 8 in the morning, with the finals scheduled for 6 p.m. Saturday night.

The teams will be split into AA and A classifications. The AA group will be made up of the top teams in the state, while the A class will include teams only in the competition for fun. There will also be a "power pool" with the top four teams in the state.

The Texas A&M men's volleyball team will be the number two seed in the tourney behind the Texas All-Stars. The Aggies will play at 9:15 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The Texas A&M women's team will also compete in the tournament, and will play in a power pool as the number one seed.

Men's golf team sixth after tourney's first day

Oklahoma State has taken a 5-stroke lead, thanks to Willie Woods' 5-under-par 67, in the 10th annual Pan American University International College Golf Tournament. Texas A&M finished first-day action tied for sixth with Brigham Young University with both teams posting a 292.

The tournament, which opened Thursday, continues today through Saturday.

Woods was one stroke off the pace set by medalist Andrew McGee of Oklahoma as 10 of 100 contestants from the 20 teams entered in the 54-hole tournament shot below par. No

Aggie golfers finished the day's action in the top 10.

Also posting sub-par rounds were Jim Wilson of Oral Roberts, 68; Granville Chamberlee of Texas, 69; Steve Keppler of Florida State, 69; Tommy Moore of Oklahoma State, 70; Jeff Cumbe of Oral Roberts, 70; Mike Keymonth of Florida State, 70; Gregg Aune of Texas, 70; and Rick Fehr of Brigham Young, 70.

Oklahoma State posted a 282, followed by Oral Roberts at 283. Texas and Florida State were tied at 286 while Oklahoma completed the top five with a 291.
