Kimmo Alkio slams a backhand to his opponent during Texas A&M's match victory over Southwest Texas State over the weekend. The Aggie men's team, ranked No. 20 in the nation, plays 10th-ranked Trinity University today at 1:30 p.m.

Strange bounce wins game

Drake upsets No. 7 Tulsa

United Press International
Leon Van Hook, a reserve forward for Drake, got a glimpse of basketball heaven Monday night.

"I can't express it," he said following Drake's 56-55 freak upset of No. 7 Tulsa. "It's like a dream come true."

With Drake ahead, 54-53, Van Hook and a Tulsa player fought for a rebound of a missed foul shot. In the struggle, the ball bounced high off the floor and through the basket with eight seconds left. Tulsa hit a layup with one second to go but it was not enough.

"We've been working on that play," cracked Gary Garner, Drake's first-year coach.

Tulsa Coach Nolan Richardson, however, was in no mood for humor. He left Veterans Auditorium in Des Moines, Iowa, seething.

"It's a disgrace to the Missouri Valley Conference," he said. "That's all I have to say."

Down 5 points with 2:47 to play, Drake came back and moved in front, 54-51, with 25 seconds remaining.

Tulsa's Steve Harris then hit a 15-footer with 14 seconds left to cut the margin to one point.

With 11 seconds to go, Drake's Terry Youngbauer was fouled but failed on a 1-and-1, setting the stage for Van Hook's bizarre ending.

Youngbauer and Stephfon Butler each scored 14 points for Drake, 11-11. Tulsa, 18-4, was led by Harris with 14 points.

"If you continue to get great effort," Garner said, "great things are going to happen to you."

In other Top 20 games, No. 1 Virginia edged Georgia Tech, 56-52; No. 3 DePaul belted Ohio, 83-61; No. 13 Memphis State defeated St. Louis, 82-64, and No. 17 Arkansas beat Texas A&M, 92-75.

At Atlanta, Georgia Tech led late into the second half before Virginia rallied to raise its record to 25-1. The Yellow Jackets, up 33-22 at the half, were led by Brook Steppe with 26 points, hitting 10-of-11 shots.

At Rosemont, Ill., Skip Dillard scored 29 points in his final home game and Terry Cummings added 18 and DePaul hit its first 10 shots to blow it open.

At St. Louis, Derrick Phillips scored 21 points and freshman Keith Lee had 21 to give Memphis State its seventh straight victory. St. Louis was paced by Kevin Strozier with 19 points.

At Fayetteville, Ark., Scott Hastings scored 27 points and Arkansas held Texas A&M without a field goal for more than nine minutes to move into sole possession of first place in the Southwest Conference. Reggie Roberts tossed in 26 points for the Aggies.

In other games, it was: Arizona State 80, Southern Cal 62; Holy Cross 67, New Hampshire 54; Penn State 62, South Carolina 60; and St. John's 77, Providence 76 (2 ot).

Other scores include Clemson 79, Furman 62; Cincinnati 87, Virginia Tech 81; Nebraska 65, Oklahoma 51; and Southern Illinois 84, West Texas State 79 (2 ot).

HOW DOES $90,000 A YEAR GRAB YOUR ASSETS?

Accountant .....	$29,744/yr*
Attorney .....	$56,964/yr*
Chemist .....	$48,961/yr*
Engineer .....	$45,221/yr*
LUBY'S MANAGER .....	$90,000/yr

Seem hard to believe? The average Luby's Cafeterias, Inc. manager did earn over $90,000 last year. The average training period to become a manager is 6 to 8 years. Managers attain these earnings by collecting a share of the net profits from their own cafeteria. The average associate manager last year earned $50,000. This earning level is attainable in 3 to 5 years.

To become a manager of one of our cafeterias is a very special business opportunity. You'll be joining an ambitious and progressive company that requires more of its managers than any food chain in the Sunbelt. Local managers are decision making executives who are responsible for all purchasing, menu planning, and hiring of personnel. We grant our managers a great deal of autonomy, and treat them as business partners. Luby's Cafeterias, Inc. is a firm believer in promoting from within; hence, most Corporate Officers are former unit managers.

Luby's Cafeterias, Inc. is not restricting interviews to only Business majors; we're open to all degrees. We're looking for people who are interested in becoming dynamic, aggressive, and well paid business people. If that's your goal, then we're looking for you!

Black Hawks' Magnuson gives up coaching post

United Press International
Keith Magnuson exited with a flourish, delivering one of the most unusual pep talks in hockey history.

Magnuson, apparently with little objection from ownership, decided to resign as coach of the Chicago Black Hawks and told the team between the second and third periods of its game Monday against the Vancouver Canucks.

"I told them then, hoping it would fire them up so we could get two points," said Magnuson.

The play fell short — just as the Hawks have done this season — and the Canucks emerged with a 4-1 victory despite getting outshot 16-5 in the third period.

"The major priority is to win as many games as we can the rest of the season," Magnuson said. "I believe the team is more important than any one man."

Magnuson led the team to a 31-33-16 finish in his rookie season as coach but fell into a 10-game winless streak this season before General Manager Bob Pulford decided to handle the team on a six-game interim basis.

During Magnuson's absence, team President William Wirtz indicated that he wanted Pulford to continue.

"I want to emphasize that I got the full support of Bob Pul-ford and the Wirtz family," said Magnuson.

Pulford refused comment on who would be the Hawks' coach for their next home game Wednesday against Buffalo. A replacement could come today.

Magnuson hinted the players may have tried to make him a scapegoat for its 21-28-10 record.

Pulford, who coached the Black Hawks for two seasons before taking over strictly as general manager, said Magnuson's decision surprised him.

"It came as a complete surprise to us. A person who will do this for the team shows a lot of character," Pulford said. "I'm extremely proud of Keith Magnuson the man. I've always said he's not a quitter."
