The Texas A&M University men's golf team is headed to Laredo to compete in the Border Olympics Friday and Saturday following a good performance in the Lamar Intercollegiate golf tournament, which completed play Monday.

Gary Krueger, who finished second in the Border Olympics in 1981, and All-America's Danny Briggs and Brad Jones are expected to lead the team in the tournament.

Texas A&M played well in Beaumont, where it finished fifth of 21 teams entered in the Lamar University event.

The Aggies shot had an 882 team total for the tournament to finish 21 shots behind the University of Houston in the tournament, held at the Pinewood Country Club in Beaumont.

Houston shot an 861 to win the tourney, seven strokes ahead of its closest opponent.

Aggie ladies seek TAIAW swim title

Texas A&M University women's swim team competes in the state meet this weekend in Austin.

The women, who finished seventh last year, are competing in the Texas Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women state swimming championships.

"We're a lot stronger this year," Texas A&M swim coach

Mel Nash said. "We should finish somewhere between third and sixth."

"It is going to be close between the University of Texas and Southern Methodist University."

In addition to Texas A&M, UT and SMU, teams from Texas Tech University, Lamar University and Rice University will compete.

Ladies to face Wayland in tourney's first round

by Gaye Denley
Battalion Staff

The Aggie Ladies fought their way to a berth in the TAIAW state tournament with last Friday's 53-48 victory over the University of Texas at San Antonio, but the real test will be tonight if they expect to advance beyond the opening round. The new obstacle is Wayland Baptist University, the second seed of the tournament and a 93-71 winner over Texas A&M Dec. 18.

Head coach Cherri Rapp said it will take an almost flawless game, both mentally and physically, for the Ladies to beat Wayland in Plainview tonight.

"I think it was hard for us to get mentally ready for UTSA, because the girls thought they were much better than them," she said. "They know it's to take a near-perfect game to beat Wayland. If we play well, we've been playing lately ought to be able to give a good game."

Only the University of Texas ranked fifth in the nation first in the state, is seeded higher than Wayland. The Lady Aggies, 26-3 on the season, the Southwest Conference tournament hosted by Texas in January and blasted the Ladies 93-53 Feb. 8, Texas beaten Wayland Baptist this season.

"Texas is a pretty big game because they've beaten us in the tournament during season," Rapp said.

Starting for Texas A&M tournament's seventh seed, be Kelley Sullivan, Rommydy, Kelly Krauskopf, L. Joiner and Janet Duckham.

Sullivan, with a 13-point average, is the leading scorer in the Ladies, while Duckham leads rebounds with six per game in the last game against Wayland. However, Joiner claimed point honors with 19 earlier.

The TAIAW tournament is Texas A&M's last chance to wage a season fraught with consistent play from a young team of players. The Ladies lost starters from the 1981 team, returning only Sullivan and have won only nine games during the rebuilding process.
