Former playmate wants city council position

United Press International
LOS ANGELES — Corinne Entratter has one advantage in her bid for the Beverly Hills City Council — few politicians have dared themselves for the public scrutiny she's undergone.
A former Playboy centerfold and Miss America runner-up, Entratter announced her candidacy Thursday with the declaration: "You don't have to be a frump to run for council."
"I don't think I should be

New braces try to make smiling easier for wearers

United Press International
NEW YORK — Invisible braces that attach to the back of the teeth can make life easier for self-conscious adolescent metal mouths and eliminate the danger of locking wires during a kiss, a dentist inventor says.
Only the orthodontist will know which kids wear the new style appliances, Dr. Craven Kurz of Beverly Hills, Calif., said Wednesday.
"In no way, shape or form can the braces be seen from the front," he said. "This is the wave of the future in orthodontia."
