Arkansas' next game Sunday

United Press International
The 13th-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks take on the winner of the Kansas State-Northern Illinois basketball game in the second round of the NCAA playoffs Sunday at 6 p.m. in Dallas, NCAA officials said Monday.

Arkansas, 23-5, won the Southwest Conference tournament Saturday with an 84-69 victory over Houston. The Razorbacks also captured the Southwest Conference championship after winning all their games at home and splitting on the road to finish with a 12-4 record in regular season conference play.

The Razorbacks drew a bye in the first round of the NCAA playoffs and will move straight to the second round. The Kansas State-Southern Illinois game will be played Friday night.

No. 2-ranked DePaul University also drew a bye and is in the Midwest bracket of the tournament. Sunday, DePaul will play the winner of the Boston College-San Francisco game that will be played Friday night.

Mavs topple Spurs 121-113

United Press International
SAN ANTONIO — Dallas' rookies combined for 89 points to lead the Mavericks to their first victory ever over the Spurs, 121-113, Monday night.

Rookie of the year candidate Jay Vincent led the Mavericks with 34 points. Rolando Blackman came off the bench to add of the game with a 10-0 spurt midway through the second period to gain a 49-38 margin after the Spurs went more than three minutes without scoring.

Dallas took a 57-44 halftime lead behind Blackman, who hit 11 of 13 field goal attempts. Vincent took over in the second half, scoring 22 points in the final two periods.

George Gervin, who hit 18 points in the third period, led San Antonio with 38. Mike Mitchell added 29. Dave Corzine scored 12 points and pulled down a game high 11 rebounds.
