Texas GOP booming

AUSTIN — The Associated

Republicans of Texas, initially a loosely organized effort to strengthen the GOP's clout in the statehouse, has come of age and is sporting an impressive record that its organizers say is only a beginning.

The organization, headed by five directors and based in Au-

The purpose of the meeting, Newton says, was to marshal GOP support for an assault on the top of the ticket. When it statehouse and county elections.

The partisan shifts have been impressive and ART leaders are quick to accept at least partial county and legislative seats

To accomplish that goal and fulfill a pledge made to contri-butors, ART has directed much of its effort in the past year to the redistricting process, particulary a federal suit that sought to have the Legislative Redistricting Board's reapportionment plans declared unconstitutional.
